From Eliyahu

Hello friends,

One week ago, on the day before the USA presidential election, I pointed out the real question that was before America: "will America return to its founding principles or will the globalist juggernaut finish off America?" I also pointed out, this is not only a political question - it is a Biblical question as well.

As I write this newsletter people around the world now know the results of the election, but perhaps not the latest results [mainline media are not updating their maps and totals]. Here are the latest results as reported at #Election2016:

Final #Election2016 numbers

#PopularVote:

#Trump: 62,972,226

#Clinton: 62,277,750

#ElectoralCollege vote

#Trump 306 #Clinton 232

Notice that President-Elect Trump won by even greater numbers than first reported, when all of the votes had not yet been tallied. Further, contrary to the claims of leftist media agitators and rioters, President-Elect Trump won the popular vote. The unrepentant leftist media is not reporting this, preferring to maintain the false narrative that Clinton won the popular vote. Trump also finished with a much larger electoral college vote, 74 electoral votes more than Clinton. All in all, the win was "Yuge." This is all the more remarkable when one considers reports of wide-spread voter fraud on the left, with dead voters, ballot stuffing, fractional magic used in computer voting, prisoners and undocumented foreigners voting, liberal voters being bused to vote at multiple places, and all the rest of the leftist cheating and voter fraud [blackboxvoting.org]. We will never know the real total, but it had to be a complete blowout for Trump to beat all of that cheating!

For a graphic picture of what happened we have this map from #Election2016 [see right]. On this map the lighter color is Trump and the darker blue is Clinton. Major leftist urban areas went to Clinton while pretty much all of rural America went to Trump. Geographically speaking, the Trump win was a total repudiation of the leftist globalist agenda of recent years, and was, more particularly, a total rejection of the corruption of the political establishment so thoroughly personified by the Clinton political machine. Really, this is an astounding picture of how America voted.

This vote represents an amazing turnabout by millions of Americans. As I pointed out in my last newsletter: "America has been slipping away. The simple reason is that the population has been turning away from God and sinking into unrighteousness, and even gross wickedness, for decades now. The founding fathers warned the country that only a Bible-believing, God-fearing people would be able to hold onto liberty. Insuring the moral fiber of the nation has largely been the job of the Church, yet the Church has not only failed to be a bulwark against evil, it has often conformed to evil to a large degree. Bottom line: selfishness rules, so wickedness reigns. 50 million abortions is only the beginning of the nation's sins proving out this fact."

The above statement remains true. Yet, now we have this massive popular repudiation of the evil that has come to thoroughly permeate the establishment, from top to bottom. This includes not only corrupt government, but corrupt media and the corrupt elites as well. What could possibly be responsible for such a massive change of attitude?

Here is how this amazing turnaround could happen:

It is grace from above that America has been given this one last chance before forever going over the precipice.

Does America deserve it? Clearly, no.

That's why it is called "grace."

Why did He do it?

Because He is faithful, He is kind, and He is just.

Here is what He did: Through wikileaks and alternate media He exposed the elites for the satanists they really are. He exposed the spectacle of elite corruption that permeates every aspect of the establishment. He exposed the globalist plans and money driving the leftist agenda. Every day for months, He showed America just how wicked the whole mess is, as if to ask the question: "Can you really support THIS?"

Millions of Americans were forced to open their eyes to what America has become. Millions more were forced to their knees in prayer that somehow the tide could be turned back. A flawed America with a dubious record was given an appropriately flawed and dubious champion to offer a real change for America. Like the prophets of old, this rough and ready truth-teller has traveled throughout the land unashamedly and in common language telling America what she has become, and how it has happened, and some ways he sees to change it. He doesn't claim to be a perfect champion, nor is he offering perfect solutions - but he is being more honest with America than any politician in recent memory. He is offering to change the trajectory of the country, he is repudiating corruption, he is repudiating globalism, and he is upholding God-given rights.

Although flawed, he is the best leader possible for America in this moment, and America has said "yes!" - "yes" we want a chance to change!

YHWH heard the cries of believers and has given America a last chance.

This is Grace for America.

Does this mean that the prophetic "last days" clock has been turned back?

Not at all.

The truth is, the march toward the one-world government foretold in Scripture was moving too fast! It needed to be slowed down a bit to allow for the Remnant to be gathered. This is not only grace for America - it is grace for the Remnant of Israel. We need to hold on to our freedom for a while longer to complete the mission that is before us, to gather and organize the Remnant for the Remnant Exodus. We will not have one day too many to complete this urgent work. There will be just enough time to get this vital work done.

Realize this: a war is on.

Already, calls for assassination of the President-Elect dominate Twitter, and other social sites. Should the elite succeed at this then the trajectory before America quickly changes. Short of that, as I said last week: "the battle [between the nationalists and the global elite] is just starting - a battle vengeance."

where the elite control all the doors and hold all the keys ..Trump will have to be punished, and the American people with him. The elite will dump all the inevitable results of all of their sins on his administration as his fault. This will result in a very rough time for America. The optics will be to show nationalism as a dinosaur from the past that doesn't work anymore. By the time they are finished with this operation a majority of the electorate will be so unhappy with the spanking they have received they will move to the left with a "..video of 5 city blocks on the West side of Chicago lined with busses from Wisconsin (Badger Bus Lines) bringing in protestors. The Sears tower is visible in the background." Chicago protests from November 12 were bused in using these vehicles.

I made this prediction last week and days later we are already seeing this happening in the news, with violent leftist riots [they call them "protests"] in cities across America. These are not grassroots protests, as the press would have us believe. These are sponsored by globalist interests such as George Soros and moveon.org, which are actually paying salaries, with benefits, to the "protesters." These "protesters" are then bussed in to cities to clog streets, disrupt traffic, and even destroy property and sometimes hurt people. This is not a legitimate exercise of free speech, but is actually organized "soft-terrorism" of the American public. Expect this to keep ramping up in intensity and violence. This is no real reflection of actual America. Rather, it is all bought and paid for by globalists who are working a plan to take down the country.

Now, this is harder to prove, but is a far greater threat: Elements within the "shadow government" [referenced in the Clinton emails] are covertly empowering this manufactured "revolution" through subversion within the bureaucracies of the US government. Globalist traitors have infiltrated nearly all levels of government, which now resembles the wheat and tares of Messiah's parable.

Some of these invisible traitors will inevitably work their way into positions of power in the new administration, where they will secretly undermine every sincere effort to revive the ailing republic. Make no mistake - A covert war is underway aimed at overturning America and the Constitution, to make way for a totalitarian global government.

Whatever the details of how this battle between the nationalists and the globalists unfolds, this fact does not change: we continue to move ever deeper toward the inevitable fulfillment of Bible prophecy for this final generation. I hate this outcome - but the Scripture is clear on who will be winning the nationalist v globalist war. A totalitarian global government will emerge victorious in the end. You need to know this! Acting ahead of the curve is crucial to survival. Join up and get serious with the remnant nation, preparing to go home to our place of safety, in the Remnant Exodus.

Disbelief, questions at United Nations after Trump victory

The election of Donald Trump as the next U.S. president was met with disbelief and despondency on Wednesday among some United Nations officials and diplomats amid uncertainty surrounding his foreign policy and likely engagement with the world body.

Trump, a Republican, has described the 71-year-old United Nations as incompetent and threatened to pull out of a global deal to combat climate change - a cornerstone of the legacy of U.N. chief Ban Ki-moon, who steps down at the end of 2016 after serving two five-year terms as secretary-general.

"The United Nations is not a friend of democracy, it's not a friend to freedom, it's not a friend even to the United States of America," Trump said during a speech in March to the American Israel Public Affairs Committee.

The United States is a veto-wielding member of the 15-member U.N. Security Council and the largest financial contributor to the United Nations. Washington owes about $1.1 billion, the United Nations said. Republicans have long been reluctant to pay dues, accusing the world body of waste and bias.

Ban said on Wednesday he hoped that the Trump administration would "strengthen the bonds of international cooperation."

"People everywhere look to the United States to use its remarkable power to help lift humanity up and to work for the common good," Ban told reporters.

Topping the United Nations agenda are conflicts in Syria, Yemen, South Sudan, Iraq and elsewhere, and a refugee and migrant crisis that saw a record 65.3 million people uprooted worldwide last year.

"More than ever, we need an America that is committed to world affairs, including at the United Nations," French U.N. Ambassador Francois Delattre said.

A senior Security Council diplomat, speaking on condition of anonymity, said Trump's foreign policy had so far "not been very coherent" and his victory did not bode well for the future effectiveness of the council.

"The assumption is that (a Trump administration) will be less engaged with U.N. than (President Barack) Obama's administration, which was more committed to working for collective solutions than previous U.S. administrations," the diplomat said.

Several U.N. diplomats noted a lack clarity from Trump on foreign policy.

"We have not really heard a very clear indication of where he is going," Iraq's U.N. Ambassador Mohamed Ali Alhakim told reporters on Wednesday, adding that he believed the United Nations would remain relevant.

"If there is any change in the policy we will then determine later on what we're going to do with that," he said. "Others were saying this is similar to Brexit, but this is what the Americans selected."

Yemen's U.N. Ambassador Khaled Alyemany said he hoped the "new president will contribute positively to resolve the crises in the Middle East," acknowledging that Trump had not laid out a foreign policy plan for people to see.

The United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Zeid Ra'ad al Hussein, last month warned that the world would be in danger if Trump was elected president. Zeid would continue to call out any Trump policies or practices that undermine or violate human rights, his spokesman said.

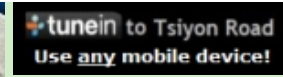

A western diplomat, speaking on condition of anonymity, summed up how Trump's victory could impact the United Nations: "I think there will be a long hangover."
