From Eliyahu

Hello friends,

Endurance doesn't happen by accident. Think of the long distance runner. Everything he does is about that moment at the finish line. To get there he must train incessantly. Discipline and hard work come from commitment and desire to win. This can't be just a moment of enthusiasm for the idea of winning. Really, the entire focus of his life from morning to morning, day after day and year after year, must be on crossing that finish line and winning! As soon as that concentrated focus and commitment is broken, his chances of winning are over.

All the faithful men and women of old put everything they had into enduring to the finish. This is the story of Messiah's life on earth, as well. He was here for a reason. He was running a race, and He was determined to finish well. He is our example.

Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking to YESHUA, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of ELOHIM! Hebrews 12:1-2

Messiah endured, even through the cross. How did He do that? He kept His eye set on the goal - on the prize. He was going to win for His Father, He was going to win for His family, He was going to win for His nation, He was going to win for His Bride! All joy! Love, I suppose, is the real motivator, for Him and for us. Look at that! He endured, and He changed EVERYTHING!

He has given you everything you need to win the race that matters - the race for your eternal future. Many treat that like it is a given, no matter what they do. But that attitude is a mistake that Messiah warned us against. He told us "he who endures to the end will be saved." He told us that our course will be rigorous, and our commitment to overcome must be more than equal to those rigors.

That is why I'm so excited about our Tsiyon meeting online tonight! We will be focusing on His words in detail. Words meant to help us endure to the end to secure the prize. Be there. You will be glad you did!

That's at Tsiyon.Net, at 8 PM CST. This is about your eternal future!

Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David

On another note, I thought you might enjoy seeing the progress being made on our new building. Yes, we've started, as you can see in the pics below.

Shelia, Administrator

Here you can see Jacob digging in the trench for one side of the retaining wall.

Jake and Jude worked together on the excavations, and a lot more.

Jacob and Shelia received our initial load of building supplies, which came on a very large truck!

After all the trenches were completed, Jake and Jude laid the cinder blocks for the retaining wall. That was quite a job! Soon you will see the retaining wall in place with concrete and top pieces in place. We just had to take a bit of a delay in the work due to rain.

We really appreciate those of you who have responded to our call for help for making this first big payment. Still need help though so if you are so inclined, please send your designated donation to Tsiyon.
