From Eliyahu

Two worlds occupy the same space. One world is perceived as a place of chaos, where anything can happen at random. That world has no rules, nor does it make sense at all. Nor does that world have any justice. In that world the wicked seem to prosper while the righteous are victimized. People who take care of their health get diseases, like coronary disease and cancer, while people who smoke, do drugs and live wild lives sometimes live to one hundred years old. It is a dreary world, where people work hard every day to "get ahead" - whatever that means - only to lose it all when they are laid off from their job, or have a health setback. In that world, all security is an illusion, something akin to an elusive wraith that you can never pin down. Worst of all, that world is completely meaningless. While some people maintain religious notions of an afterlife, none of that is considered bankable fact. All you know for sure is that you live, you make a mad scramble for whatever you can grab, then you die, and you are soon forgotten as if you never existed. The world we are talking about is the world of the atheist, the agnostic, the faithless. Those who dwell there cannot see into the other world, the bigger world, at all - not ever.

Yes, that all sounds horribly depressing, but thankfully, there is another world - the world of the faithful. The Kingdom of Elohim.

Faith gives a person eyes to see beyond the outward appearance into the heart of the truth. Faith can see the world we were just talking about, call it the world of unbelief, more precisely, the world of sin. That world is real enough to those who are its prisoners, but the faithful know that world was never meant to be. That world came about and is perpetuated by a lot of bad choices by those who live in it. That is not the world the Creator had in mind. It is a grotesque distortion of the intended reality that can be only temporary - Tolerated for a time until that which is worthy can be saved out of it. The world of the faithful is a far bigger world that contains everything and is centered around the character and intentions of an all-powerful and all-loving Creator. He is big enough to resolve all the inequities, all the injustice and all the vanity of the world of sin. His plan is already well along, and sure of success, through the ministrations of His own Son, our Messiah Y'shua. His Kingdom must be navigated by faith, as Paul said:

"for we walk by faith, not by sight." 2 Corinthians 5:7

Miracles are normal for the faithful, since they depend on them every day. Faith is dependable. True faith brings freedom from the bondage of fear, since faith is centered in reality. Freedom depends on faith. Do you understand?

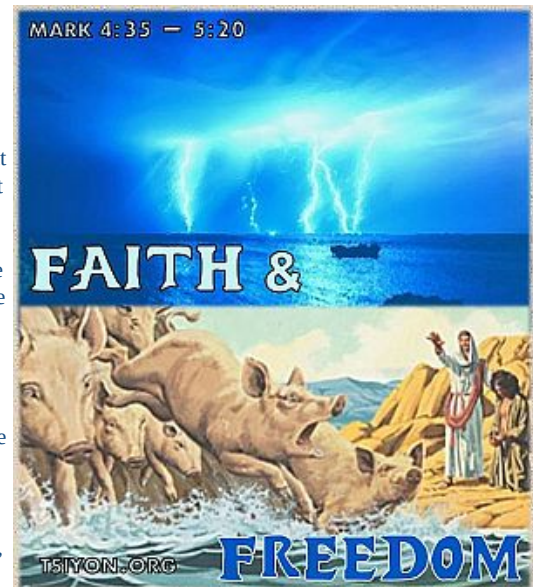

Freedom is so much more than a political slogan, or the right to vote. Freedom is the intended condition of the human spirit. In the simplest terms, freedom is the liberty to think and act according to your own free will. Free will is a gift from the Creator that comes to us because we were created in His image. He is free and He intends us to be free as well. The Creator is perfect and all His ways are right. We can see that for ourselves and choose to walk in His ways of our own free will. That choice brings us perfect freedom, the glorious freedom of the children of Elohim. Without free will there can be no choice, which would make real freedom impossible.

Realize though, that your free will has been, and continues to be, constantly under attack. While your Creator respects your free will, many others do not. The devil and his army of evil spirits tries to circumvent your free will daily through temptations and deceptions. If he can outright coerce you he will do that too. He does not play fair - he will use any means to get you to choose his way for your life. And what of the world of sin, the world where the devil rules? Everything about that world is a lie designed to do one thing - steal your freedom. Corporations lie to you constantly, just to get you to buy their products, many of which contain poisons that could lead you to an early death. Don't worry though, the "healthcare" system is standing by with drugs and surgeries to keep you going, as long as the exorbitant bills get paid. Banks throw loans and credit cards at you, in a bid to subject you under economic bondage to them. Politicians lie to you constantly to win you over to their side, to benefit their own political career. Even gurus and preachers, while claiming to lead you to freedom, are in reality attempting to deceive you to enrich themselves. There is always a spin, always an agenda, always a lie. All of it to make you choose the wrong thing. All of it to steal your freedom.

It is so much better to know the one true God. To put your trust in Him. To know His Word. To hear His voice. To walk in His way. His Spirit can guide you through all of the lies, all of the distortions and deceptions. By making the right choice, the choice of faith, you can find your way through all of that to actualize your freedom. Listen:

"Trust in YHWH with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3:5-6

That is the way of faith. It is also the way of freedom.

PS - Passover is coming quickly. Note below. Also, the war continues to escalate in Syria, as the sides jockey for advantage before the main event. See below.

Would you like to be included in our online Passover event? Send us a short video greeting! It doesn't have to be fancy. Just a short cell phone video message will do. It just needs to identify you, tell us where you are from, and include your greeting to all of the remnant who will be watching! Really, say whatever you are moved to say! We want to encourage everyone with your message, and other remnant messages from around the world!

Russia’s topline Su-57 deployed to Syria to challenge US, Israel airpower

Debkafile, Feb 23, 2018 @ 8:45

Sukhoi-57, Russia, US, Israel, Syria

Two fifth-generation Sukhoi-57 stealth fighters landed Monday, Feb. 19 at Russia’s Syrian air base, along with 4 Su-35 fighters, 4 Su-25 strike aircraft and an A-50U radar command-and-control platform.

This top-performance fleet raises Russia’s air strike and defense capabilities in Syria to the highest standards of any air force in the world, with enough power to take on superior US and Israeli air might in the Syrian arena. The Su-57’s weapon bays are designed to carry Russia’s new nuclear tactical X-50 air-launched cruise missile, although it is not known whether the aircraft in Syria are carrying them. DEBKA Weekly’s military sources see President Vladimir Putin’s decision to send the Su-57 fighters to Syria as substantially raising the big power stakes in Syria after the loss of dozens of Russian troops on Feb. 7 to massive US artillery and air strikes that decimated the Russian, Syrian and pro-Iranian forces crossing the Euphrates River. An American radar-invisible F-22 took part in that raid. The Russians have dubbed the Su-57 the “F-22 killer.”

It is also Russia’s response to Israel’s air offensive on Feb. 10, which targeted the shared Russian-Iranian T-4 air base near Palmyra and smashed four Iranian Revolutionary Guards forward command centers in Syria, after downing an Iranian drone. It is also seen in Moscow as a challenge for Israel’s newly acquired fifth-generation US F-35 combat aircraft.

Does Putin intend to order his mighty airborne strike force to go into battle against the US or Israel in the boiling Syrian arena? If he does, he will be launching the first contest between the most sophisticated warplanes ever devised for a test of superior might between the US and Russia and a war escalation unprecedented, even in Syria. The very presence of the Su-57 across the border has had the instant effect of reducing the Israel air force’s freedom of action over Syria and Lebanon.

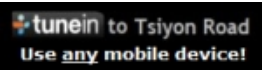

See this video! - September 23, 2017, we were told, would be the date of The Great Sign of Revelation 12. Dire end-of-the-world predictions were made. Yet, after that day of "The Great Sign" came and went, and the predictions failed to materialize, we heard little if anything explaining the failure. This was not the first time this has happened, and won't be the last. Why? Signs in the sky are foretold in Scripture for the last days. True to that prophecy, unusual heavenly signs do occur. In fact, signs in the sky often cause a clamor, with predictions of rapture and the end of the world. Yet, these signs come and go, and the predicted events fail to happen. This, of course, provides an opportunity for scoffers to gloat. Why does this keep happening? Could it be that these signs are significant, but they mean something different than YouTube preachers have guessed? There is, in fact, a unified message in these sky signs. This video, "The Heavens Speak" reveals what that message is.
