From Eliyahu

Who will feed the multitude? Will you?

Yesterday Dawn and I went into a restaurant to get fish. There was a sign out front advertising the limited time offer of a fish basket at a very good price. We don't get very much fish, so the sign got our attention. We went in and placed our order, and then sat down. Soon, the order was brought to our table and it looked great, but did not include the correct sides we had ordered. We mentioned that to the server, who quickly took responsibility for the mix-up, and told us to get started on our meal, and the mistake would be corrected. Soon two more baskets of food were at our table. In the end, we ate our fill of the meals we ordered, and had three baskets of food left over to take home with us!

Yes, our fish meals had been multiplied! We saw the hand of our Shepherd in the little joke, and got a great kick out of it.

Now, I know some folks might read that story and think it was just a coincidence that our lesson for this week's Tsiyon Meeting includes the centerpiece story of feeding the multitude with five loaves and two fishes. Actually, that story was on my mind when our own little fish multiplication happened. Further, some variation of this divine connection to our current teaching happens every week, and has happened like that for years. It is Messiah, moving along with us through each of the teachings of this ministry, in this case, reminding us that we are working together with Him to feed the multitude.

Do you want to know something amazing?

You may be feeding the multitude right now and not even know it!

Let me tell you about a rather obscure person who never knew that she was feeding the multitude.

Penobscot Woman

She was born into the world as Winnie Davis, back in the 1920s. Her mother was an indigenous native from the "people of the rising sun" - the Penobscot nation of the northeast USA. Her father was an immigrant from Wales, whose Israelite forebears had long ago traveled there to escape Roman persecution. He was, in fact, a son of David. However, that was nothing but an obscure fact to the family - one they had always hidden. the family lived an assimilated life, with all the more reason to do so because of racial prejudice against Indians as well as against Jews. Lillie Mae, Winnie's native mother, as well as her Welsh/Jewish father, moved to an unknown little hamlet in New Hampshire to "pass" as a normal white American couple, where they lived happily for decades to raise their family of thirteen children, including Winnie.

Winnie's parents were not known to be religious, but she always loved God, even as a child. She did not realize she was pursuing her Israelite heritage, she just was. She loved the "Old Testament" and spent many hours educating herself about the God of Israel. Winnie did not become a famous preacher when she grew up. She was content to be a humble farmer's wife and mother to her family. Her greatest gift to her children was what she had learned of the Scriptures and her great love for her Creator. She was a modest woman, and this was all she had with which to feed the multitude.

Winnie died while still a young woman. She has been dead for over a half century now. Winnie was my mother. She was the person that taught me the great stories from the Torah and the Prophets, before I could even read. She taught me about Messiah. In fact, her love for the Scriptures created a desire in me to read the Scriptures for myself, so she taught me to read before I ever went to school. What she did reminds me of this old proverb:

My mother went one better: she taught me to learn to fish for myself, and to teach others to do the same.

Every time some radio station plays one of our Tsiyon radio messages, or someone reads one of our books, or someone learns from one of our meetings, they don't know it, but Winnie is having a hand in feeding them. She invested her five loaves and two fishes in her children, including me, and Messiah has taken that gift from her humble hands and used it to feed the multitude. Do you understand what this means?

Don't you see this can happen with you?

Whatever He has given you, whether humble or great in the eyes of the world, can be multiplied into an abundance to feed the multitude!

What will make that happen?

Love for Him. Love of His Word. Love for those whom He brings into your sphere. He sees your gift of love, and He is faithful to take it, and to do more with it than you could ever imagine!

Yes, you have everything you need right now to feed the multitude - so get crackin! :-)

So you think you know the story of the five loaves and two fishes feeding the multitude? Maybe. But maybe there is a dimension to this you have never heard before. We will be looking into this tonight, at our online meeting. That's at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM CST. I know if Winnie were here, there is no way she would miss this meeting!

Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David

Turkish Newspaper Close To President Erdogan Calls To Form Joint Islamic Army To Fight Israel

Reprint: March 7, 2018, MEMRI, Special Dispatch, No.7371

Introduction

On December 12, 2017, ahead of the summit of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) in Istanbul, the Turkish daily Yeni Şafak, which is close to President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan and his ruling AKP party, published an article titled "A Call for Urgent Action,"[1] which also appeared on the paper's website under the title "What If an Army of Islam Was Formed against Israel?"[2] The article called on the 57 member states of the OIC to form a joint "Army of Islam" to besiege and attack the state of Israel. It notes that such a joint army will greatly exceed the Israeli army in manpower, equipment and budget, and presents statistics to prove this. It also advocates establishing joint bases for the army's ground, air and naval forces that will arrive from all over the Muslim world to besiege Israel, while noting that Pakistan, as the only nuclear country, has "a special status" among the OIC countries. An interactive map provides information on military forces stationed in various locations and the role they can play in the potential joint Muslim attack on Israel.

The Source Of The Yeni Şafak Article: The SADAT Company Website

The main points of the article are taken from the website of the Turkish SADAT International Defense and Consulting Company, which provides consultancy on defense and warfare, both conventional and unconventional, and on military organization, training and gear. The company has an agenda of promoting pan-Islamic military cooperation. According to its mission statement, it seeks "to establish defense collaboration and defense industry cooperation among Islamic countries, to help the Islamic world take its rightful place among the superpowers by providing... strategic consultancy and training services to the mili-taries and homeland security forces of Islamic countries."[3]

According to Israeli security sources, the SADAT company is involved in aiding Hamas, and seeks to assist – with funds and military gear – the creation of a "Palestine Army" to fight Israel.[4]

SADAT Founder Adnan Tanrıverdi

The SADAT company was founded by Erdoğan's senior advisor on military affairs, retired general Adnan Tanrıverdi, and is chaired by his son, Melih Tanrıverdi. Adnan Tanrıverdi (b. 1944) served in the Turkish army's Artillery Corps and headed the Home Front Command in northern Cyprus. He is an expert on assymetric warfare, and was dismissed from the Turkish military in 1996 for his Islamists leadnings. A former Turkish army officer, Ahmet Yavuz, described him as "an enemy of Atatürk" and stated that his dismissal from the army was not surprising.[5]

Image: Sadat.com.tr

The Yeni Şafak article is based on a PDF booklet featuring a number of articles by Tanrıverdi, as well as other materials, that appeared on the homepage of SADAT's website and has since been removed.[6] Some of the articles are virulently anti-Israel and promote the goal of arming the Palestinians and forming an Army of Islam to eliminate Israel.

One of these articles, titled "SADAT and the Future of the Muslim World" describes Israel as "the outpost of the new Crusade and a dagger in the heart of Islam," and "the eyes, ears and fist of the Christian World." A second article, titled "How to Solve the Palestinian Question?" emphasizes the need to utilize the OIC as the basis for a permanent defense cooperation committee, and also describes his vision of establishing military bases for the purpose of liberating Palestine. An article titled "Palestine Too Should Have an Army" articulates Tanrıverdi's vision of forming a Palestinian army equipped with tanks and other heavy weaponry, and adds that this army, along with a united Army of Islam, can bring about Israel's military defeat within 10 days and its diplomatic defeat within 20 days.

The fact that Yeni Şafak echoes Tanrıverdi's articles indicates that regime-associated media is promoting an agenda of attacking Israel.

Tanrıverdi Associate Arrested In Israel On Suspicion Of Aiding Hamas

Recently, Israel became aware of Tanrıverdi's activities after it arrested a Turkish academic, Cemil Tekeli, on suspicion of aiding Hamas terrorists in Turkey. According to the Israeli paper Makor Rishon, Tekeli, who has since been deported to Turkey, is a close associate of Adnan Tanrıverdi. The Makor Rishon report featured a photo of him with both Adnan and Melih Tanrıverdi:[7]

The following are excerpts from the Yeni Şafak article, along with some of the images and infographics that accompanied it. Bold text was highlighted in the original :

"This Wednesday, Istanbul will host an extraordinary summit of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, at which decisions on military and economic issues will presumably be made. In this framework, it becomes evident that the member states' [joint] military might greatly exceeds that of Israel. Moreover, in a possible military operation, this superiority [can] be realized on the ground by [setting up] joint military bases for ground, air and naval forces. Below are a map and statistics presenting a comparison between Israel and the [proposed] Army of Islam...

"What If An Army Of Islam Was Formed Against Israel?

"If the OIC member states unite and form a joint military force, it will be the largest army in the world. These countries' total population is 1,674,526,931. The number of soldiers in active service in these countries is at least 5,206,100. Their [overall] military defense budget, of $174,728,420, is also worthy of emphasis.

"Half Of Istanbul

"As for Israel, it is significantly inferior. The population of this country, which attempted to occupy Jerusalem while surrounded by Muslim states, is 8,049,314. Note that the population of Istanbul alone exceeds 14 million. The number of soldiers in active service in the [Israeli] occupation forces is 160,000, and [Israel's] defense budget is approximately $15, 600,000,000.

"Islamic Countries Will Lay Siege To Israel

"Among the decisions that can be taken at the OIC [summit] is to form a 'Jerusalem Task Group.' In this framework, military steps are likely to be taken. The [Muslim] armies, ranging from Africa to Asia, surpass the Israeli [army in might]. So if an Islamic army is formed, Israel will be under a siege.

"At The First Stage: 250 Thousand Soldiers

"In a possible military operation, the first step is expected to involve 250,000 soldiers, and the establishment of joint land, air and naval bases for use in the short term.

"500 tanks and armored vehicles, 100 war planes, 500 attack helicopters and 50 warships and submarines can be mobilized.

Interactive map providing information on particular bases and missions in a possible operation against Israel.

Clicking on various locations provides the following information, for example:

"Eskişehir – Konya - Kilis: In case of a military operation, air bases in various locations will house 100 planes and 500 attack helicopters, and also serve as reinforcement and supply bases. 250,000 military staff, including pilots, will be ready for duty.

[Northern] Cyprus: In case of a military operation, the 50 warships and submarines stationed in naval bases can take an active role [in the fight] against Israel in the Mediterranean and the Red Sea. The Turkish navy, among others, will participate in the operation. Together the forces will comprise 250,000 men.

"Military Bases Close to Israel Available For Immediate Action

"The war planes that will be dispatched to the region from greater distances will be stationed in airbases [closer to Israel]. Israel will most likely to be besieged by the naval fleets that will be sent to the Mediterranean and the Red Sea.

"The Necessary Equipment Exists

"The military capability of the OIC member states is considerable. These armies have the necessary equipment to carry out a military operation on land, sea and air.

"Even Turkey Alone Is Superior [To Israel]

"Turkey will serve as an important headquarters during the operation, due to its land, air and naval infrastructures. The Turkish army, which carried out 'Operation Euphrates Shield' [in Syria in 2017] with great success, is now ranked the world's seventh strongest army, and the second largest army among the NATO powers. Turkey has approximately 4,000 tanks and 1,000 war planes and other aircraft. Its navy made significant progress during the last years, with 194 vessels at its disposal.

"As the only country which possesses nuclear weapons, Pakistan has an important status among the 57 Muslim [OIC] countries...

"Those who believe that they are the owners of Jerusalem today will not find a single tree to hide behind tomorrow"

"Asia's Military Defiance

"In a statement, Malaysian Defense Minister [Hishammuddin] Hussein described Trump's recognition [of Jerusalem as Israel's capital] as a blow to Muslims, and added: 'The Malaysian armed forces are ready to fulfill their duty regarding Jerusalem.'

"Turkey Is Forming Alliances

"In recent years, Turkey has launched a series of collaborations with [OIC] member states. The joint military drill with our Iraqi neighbors conveyed a clear message to the terrorists, and Turkey is [also] engaging in new collaborations with Qatar, Somalia and other Gulf and African countries. In this context it should be underlined that Turkey is taking steps to realize the model of the 'Army of Islam,' forging alliances with many Muslim countries to increase its military mobility."

See this video! - September 23, 2017, we were told, would be the date of The Great Sign of Revelation 12. Dire end-of-the-world predictions were made. Yet, after that day of "The Great Sign" came and went, and the predictions failed to materialize, we heard little if anything explaining the failure. This was not the first time this has happened, and won't be the last. Why? Signs in the sky are foretold in Scripture for the last days. True to that prophecy, unusual heavenly signs do occur. In fact, signs in the sky often cause a clamor, with predictions of rapture and the end of the world. Yet, these signs come and go, and the predicted events fail to happen. This, of course, provides an opportunity for scoffers to gloat. Why does this keep happening? Could it be that these signs are significant, but they mean something different than YouTube preachers have guessed? There is, in fact, a unified message in these sky signs. This video, "The Heavens Speak" reveals what that message is.
