New: Understand Revelation!

Right now there seems to be a hysteria about the dating of the end of the age. Current predictions for "the end" include 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017. The truth is, none of these dates are correct. Though the end will come in this generation, it will come later than most seem to be expecting. By the time it comes most current believers will be sick of date speculations and will have given up on all such predictions. Many will have left the faith all together, thinking that prophecy has failed. That will not be true, but it will seem true to a majority. Here at Tsiyon, we don't want you to be fooled! That's why we are starting a systematic study of Revelation to help you discern the times we are living in. Don't miss a single program!

Note For Tsiyon Partners: We are presenting more information for some of these Revelation programs than will fit into our regular hour programs. When we do that we will create an "extended edition" just for our Tsiyon Ministry Partners that includes EVERYTHING. We will be producing Revelation study guides for our Tsiyon Ministry Partners, also. This information is vital for the remnant of Israel and is being unsealed right here, right now. Please, don't miss a thing.

Prayer Alert Update!

Here is latest update on 3 year old Logan: "Logan is making some wonderful, wonderful progress. He is opening his eyes, turning his head, he is reacting to stimulus, he can breathe on his own, but they do turn the ventilator on for a few breaths to make sure he is getting plenty of oxygen to his brain. He is able to follow commands like to squeeze a hand or blink his eyes. This is all awesome news! I do believe that Logan is the Miracle that prayers have asked for. Because he is still affected by some of the drugs that were used to keep him in a coma, the doctors still cannot say what effects the brain damage will have. They are expecting to move Logan to the rehabilitation and therapy section of the hospital this week, hopefully tomorrow. They will know more as the drugs continue to leave his system. He is having to have other meds that will help with the withdrawal of the "coma" meds and so he is still somewhat medicated. But, like I said earlier, he is making wonderful progress. Thank you all so much for the prayers. Please, keep praying. Logan and his family still have so much to go through and still need the support and strength that the prayers have provided for them. GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU."

Revelation Studies

As you can see above, we are starting a new series of Tsiyon programs on the book of Revelation. The truth is, I have been receiving a lot of
