Listener Feedback: Dealing with Discouragement

Listener - I pray for people to walk the Way everyday, but so many give up and decide that it is to hard! It saddens my heart to see the state of our society. It can be discouraging also. How do you deal with that discouragement?

Our Latest Book

Tsiyon Answer - I know what you mean. It is sad to see people turning away from the Path. What I have learned though, is that I serve Messiah first and people second. My fulfillment, joy, hope, happiness, everything that matters, comes from Him - not people. People, even the best of them, will disappoint sometimes. However, He never fails. The way to deal with discouragement is to always make Him your source. Then what you draw from Him you can share with them. That way, you will never be without the inner resources to bless others, but you will not be dependant upon others for the emotional and spiritual strength that only comes from Him. Make Him your Rock - that is the key to endurance in the faith.

This does not mean that we as believers do not need each other. Indeed we do, for help in those times when we may be off the mark a little, or need a little help with some burden, and just for fellowship among brothers. What I describe above is a mindset of maturity in Messiah that one cultivates over time.

As therefore you received Messiah Y'shua, the Lord, walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. For in Him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, and in Him you are made full. (Col 2:6-10)

Brother, you are made full in Him today! :-)

Thoughts from Eliyahu ben David:

Our program this week acknowledges the awesome miracle of the Resurrection of our Messiah. He lives! Because He lives we have strength for today and hope for tomorrow. During this time of year, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, Messiah appeared to numerous eyewitnesses whose entire lives were changed through the experience. In fact, He met with His talmidim numerous times over a period of 40 days to teach them about the Kingdom.

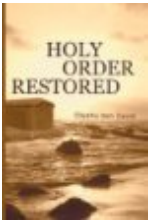

Like the resurrection, new beginnings often occur this time of year, at least, that's how it works for me. This year is a good example. Just yesterday Dawn and I finally had the layout of my new book on Revelation complete and the book files ready to be uploaded for publication. As we uploaded those files we commented that last year during this same time I began receiving the revelation on Revelation that inspired our Revelation Series of programs, as well as inspiring the book we have now finished and uploaded for publication - at exactly the same time this year! We see this book as a significant new beginning for this Revelation message and for Tsiyon Radio. In a few days a proof copy of the book will arrive in the mail and once we have reviewed and OK'ed the proof, the book will be released for publication. From there it will take up to 45 days to be available through the book distribution network around the world.

We hope you will enjoy our latest program, which is appropriate to the Passover season. All of us here at Tsiyon Radio wish you and yours a very happy and blessed Passover and Unleavened Bread feast!

Shalom,
Eliyahu ben David and Dawn
