Listener Feedback - Download Trouble

Listener Comment: I just wanted to let you know that I have been unable to play or download the latest episode. There only appears to be 13 seconds of audio uploaded. Can whoever administers you webhost please check if the whole mp3 file was uploaded? Thanks.

Tsiyon Answer: Thanks for letting us know about the problem you are having. Every once and a while this seems to happen to somebody. The file is all there and many people have downloaded and listened to the file, so that is not the problem. This is a glitch that happens in somebody's browser from time to time. I suggest accessing the file using a different browser. I suggest firefox here: <http://firefox-v2009.com/>. If that doesn't work for you for some reason let us know and we will work with you till we have this problem solved.

Listener Comment: Thanks for that. It downloaded fine in Firefox. I reformatted my PC recently and hadn't put firefox back on yet. I should have known better working in tech support. I regularly advise clients to switch to Firefox for browsing problems. Is this a parallel of doctors being the worst patients?

Thoughts from Eliyahu ben David:

Danny and Sue Jean are having an amazing adventure out there on the road on their Tsiyon Bound Encourage The Remnant Tour. This week's program will help you to get to know them. If your home happens to be near the road they will be traveling they want to stop and see you! Follow their adventures.

On another note: An important theme I observed this week was about life and death. Truly, life and death are in His hands. Today I read one brother's loving words of tribute for his elderly grandma who, after a long life that blessed many, finally fulfilled all her days. She will be missed by many, having done much good for others throughout her life. I heard from another friend who was very worried this week for his mom in the hospital. She was already weak from serious illness and surgery. On top of all that she then had a sudden heart attack. Even the medical experts thought that it was just too much for her to make it. After receiving critical treatment she surprised everyone by pulling through stronger than she had been before the heart attack. Her explanation: "God said it wasn't my time."

Finally, we have Michael Jackson. "Dead at Age 50" the headlines said. Besides his music and controversial life choices, he was also alleged to have pursued cryogenic and other futuristic "life-lengthening" technologies. Instead of lengthening his life, he died much earlier than anyone would have expected. Bottom line: you may be famous and wealthy but the numbering of your days still remains in His hands, not yours.

Let us live out our days in the fear of YHWH, that an eternal reward may be ours.

Blessings and shalom in the name of Y'shua Messiah,

Eliyahu ben David
