Was Pharisee Hillel Davidic?

Doctor of the Law at Jerusalem in the time of King Herod; founder of the school called after him, and ancestor of the patriarchs who stood at the head of Palestinian Judaism till about the fifth century of the common era. Hillel was a Babylonian by birth and, according to a later tradition, belonged to the family of David. Jewish Encyclopedia

Listener Feedback

Listener Comment - ..What About Radio Advertising?

You often announce on your programs that you want to expand to many more stations. Why don't you just offer radio spots on your program to help pay for expansion onto more stations?

Tsiyon Answer - ..What About Radio Advertising?

This is a question we have been thinking about lately. The support of our listeners and partners has enabled Tsiyon to minister on the radio and on the internet to thousands of people daily, potentially even millions. That is no small thing and we appreciate that support greatly. Even so, as we say on the air, "that is not enough" because we are called to get this message heard everywhere. It makes sense that if we could supplement the support we are already receiving with a little carefully selected advertising on our program we could use that sponsorship to pay for more rapid expansion on to more stations. Of course, if support were to wane because listeners thought advertising was paying the bills then the Tsiyon mission would be worse off for carrying advertising. Also, quality is an issue: Realize that we simply will not ruin our program by saturating it with advertising. At most we will simply replace some of the announcement space already in use on our program with a judiciously selected advertising spot or two so that the meat of our program will be unaffected. This would be better for sponsors too, since their promotion would not be lost in a sea of other advertising on our show. We would like to hear what our listeners, partners - and potential sponsors - think about this idea. Email us, won't you?

Thoughts from Eliyahu ben David:

Our recent program on the Way of the Pharisees provoked a lot of thought and questions about the role of the Pharisees in the 1st Century, including questions about Hillel, considered by many Jews as the father of Pharisaic Judaism. In today's program we probe questions about Hillel, and 1st Century leadership of Judaism, as the subject impacts Y'shua Messiah. Be warned: this program is not the party line - but it is the truth.

Blessings and Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David
