If I may I would like to share a dream I had with you. I know that you probably get a lot of these so I apologize. I just feel that YHWH wants me to share it with you. [Dream with interpretation follows]

Tsiyon Answer - *Lion Dream

[Original dream in black - Tsiyon Interpretation in blue]

I was with Yeshua on a hillside, it was very green and there were rolling green hills all around us.

This is God's green earth, generally.

We were looking down into a ravine in front of us that was on fire, but not engulfed, just spots of fire here and there.

This is the Judgment path of the world now under way since 2008 unto the End. See my book, Announcing Judgment Day.

Yeshua was not a man, He was a massive lion.

Lion of Judah, King of Israel, Messiah - Gen 49:9, 1 Sam 17:37, Num 24:9, Prov 19:12, Prov 20:2, Rev 5:5

As we stood together on this hillside looking down into the ravine we watched as these different animals were running through the ravine and running straight into these spots of fire and dying in the flames. We were noticing that some would run past the fire but we would say to one another "this ones not going to make it," and those in particular would run right into the fire.

Different animals stand for different sorts of people. Their choices as they navigate the successive crises of these end days will determine their outcome. Most will be overcome because of wrong choices, causing them to run right into the flames. It is very predictable to the wise what the outcome will be for those who are driven and controlled by their fleshly nature, rather than by the Spirit of YHWH. These crises must be navigated spiritually. Those driven by mere fleshly desires and emotions cannot succeed in navigating the crises of the last days judgment.

We observed this happening for a time and all of the sudden Yeshua ran straight down into the ravine and up and over the hill on the other side of it. I ran straight after Him.

Messiah moves from one high place to another, as do all of those "who follow Him wherever He goes." Messiah's path intersects the judgment at important points, but He is not included in it, of course. Neither are those who are with Him. Psalm 14:33, Hab 3:19, Rev 6:1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 12, 16+17, 14:4

When I came to the top of the hill on the other side of the ravine I was in the middle of a thick growth of bushes and I remember being afraid, not being able to see what was behind them. I rounded a corner and there He was and the entire right side of His face and mane were covered in blood. I stopped as soon as I saw Him and He looked right at me and my feelings of closeness I had felt with Him just moments before had turned into extreme reverence. He locked eyes with me and then He took off back down into the ravine again to my left.

This is not the sissy "Jesus" whose weak and pained countenance adorns the churches of Christendom. This is the Mighty Lion of Judah who strikes the nations with an iron rod! Psalm 110:6 prophesies this very period, saying; "He will judge among the nations, He will fill them with corpses, He will shatter the chief men over a broad country." As He judges the nations He will rip up the wicked like a fierce lion! He will kill millions of wicked people without mercy and without regret. Both fear and reverence are appropriate upon seeing His righteous vengeance being exercised in the earth.

As He ran off, a lioness came through the bushes to my right, she looked at me and I told her "He just made a kill," and she immediately ran after Him. I ran after them both, I could not see where they went because I was running through the thick brush, but as I got into the clearing I saw Yeshua and the Lioness laying down next to one another.

The Lioness is the Faithful Remnant of Israel, a fitting partner for the Mighty Lion of Judah.

"At the proper time it shall be said to Jacob And to Israel, what God has done! Behold, a people rises like a lioness, And as a lion it lifts itself; It will not lie down until it devours the prey, And drinks the blood of the slain." Num 23:23-24

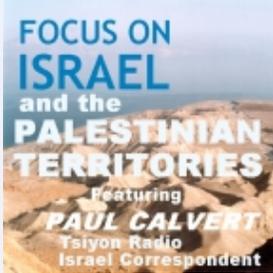

In front of them was a number of the dead animals that He and I had watched burning in the fire, but now they had taken on human form.

They are those who had not prevailed in the judgment and were slain.

Right next to me was a wine press, and Yeshua watched out as I took these bodies and placed them one by one into the press and operated a lever that crushed them. I could hear their bones breaking as I operated the press. I was not disturbed by this in the dream. I remember looking over at Him and the lioness and they were just calm as could be, He was not watching me, He was just looking off into the distance, and I woke up.

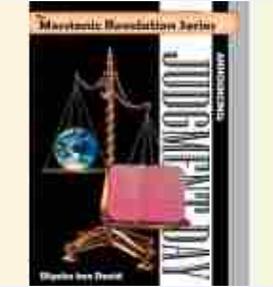

The peaceful demeanor of Y'shua, the Lioness, and even yourself, is noteworthy here. The peace of the righteous is not to be broken by the judgment that falls upon the wicked. Surely, the winepress speaks about the wrath of Messiah falling upon the wicked. As time passes and the press wheel rolls, the opportunity for righteous choices, and with them a way of escape, quickly closes, until there is no escaping the inevitable. Pop! Like a grape in a winepress they are gone! It is of interest that you are the one who works the winepress. In this figure you stand for the many individuals of Remnant Israel, Messiah's brothers. "Blessed is everyone who blesses you, And cursed is everyone who curses you." Blessings or curses fall upon the nations in proportion to how they treat you. In that sense you - individual brothers of Messiah - turn the lever that crushes the wicked. See Isaiah 63:1-6, Matt 25:40-41, Rev 14:19-20, 19:15

Sometime later I read numbers 24:8,9 and noticed that it had a strong reference to the dream.

Actually, these verses in Numbers confirm both the Divine origin of your dream, and the interpretation I have given you. The verses are part of the larger story of what happened when Israel, after the Exodus, camped in the plains of Moab, when Balak, king of the Moabites, called upon Balaam the diviner to curse Israel. However, each time that Balaam spoke to Balak, instead of cursing Israel, YHWH caused him to bless Israel instead. Balaam Prophecy 1.

He took up his parable, and said, "From Aram has Balak brought me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the East. "Come, curse Jacob for me. Come, defy Israel."
How shall I curse whom God has not cursed? How shall I defy whom YHWH has not defied?
For from the top of the rocks I see him [Israel]. From the hills I see him. Behold, it is a people that dwells alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations [a prophecy of scattered Israel, each dwelling alone, among the nations but not part of them].
Num 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous! Let my last end be like his!" Num 23:7-10 HNV

Though cursed by kings, curses against Israel are turned into blessings, by the word of YHWH. Israel is a set-apart nation, destined to be as numerous as the dust. Balaam sees Israel in the last days and is envious of Israel's blessings!

Balaam Prophecy 2.

God is not a man, that he should lie, nor the son of man, that he should repent. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not make it good?
Behold, I have received a command to bless. He has blessed, and I can't reverse it.
He has not seen iniquity in Jacob. Neither has he seen perverseness in Israel. YHWH his God is with him [Israel]. The shout of a king is among them.
God brings them out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.
Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob; Neither is there any divination with Israel. Now it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What has God done!
Behold, the people rises up as a lioness, As a lion he lifts himself up. He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain." Num 23:19-24 HNV

YHWH has determined to bless Israel. He is not a man that changes His mind, then or now. Man cannot reverse what YHWH has determined. The prophecy foresees a time when iniquity and perverseness are no longer found in the True Israel. They are blameless (Rev 14:5) with the Lion of Judah as their King. Demonic enchantments and divinations fail against Israel, because of Yah's great strength, with which He upholds Israel.

"The Remnant of Israel "rises up as a lioness" - the lioness in your dream of these last days. This lioness, the Remnant Nation, does not lie down again until the enemies of Israel have been defeated at Armageddon. This lioness is in the process of rising up right now, one by one, as each faithful one from scattered Israel hears the call and awakens, to rise up as part of His Nation.

Balaam Prophecy 3.

Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him.
Num 24:2

A third blessing is inspired by the grand vista seen by Balaam from the mountain, as he looks down upon the camp of Israel, divinely organized according to their tribes, with the fiery pillar of cloud signifying the Divine Presence, resting over the Tabernacle in the center of the camp. As Balaam peers in awe at this other-worldly sight the Spirit of YHWH falls upon him, and he blesses Israel again.

He took up his parable, and said, "Balaam the son of Beor says, the man whose eye was closed says; he says, who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having his eyes open:
How goodly are your tents, Jacob, and your tents, Israel! [Speaking of the remarkable Divine Order displayed in the camp].
As valleys they are spread forth, as gardens by the riverside, as aloes which YHWH has planted, as cedar trees beside the waters.
Water shall flow from his buckets. His seed shall be in many waters. His king shall be higher than Agag. His kingdom shall be exalted. Num 24:3-7

All of this speaks of the blessing of Israel, in numbers, in provisions, in establishment by the Almighty. This prophecy sees into the future when "his [Israel's] seed shall be in many waters [many nations]. This foresees the Remnant of Israel having been assimilated into all the nations. When Balaam saw them they had no king, but prophetically Balaam sees that they shall enjoy the benefits of a Great King and Kingdom. This is, of course, Y'shua our Messiah.

God brings him out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of the wild ox. He shall eat up the nations his adversaries, shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with his arrows.
He couched, he lay down as a lion, as a lioness; who shall rouse him up?
Everyone who blesses you is blessed. Everyone who curses you is cursed. Num 24:8-9

These are the verses you mention. They speak of Israel coming out of Egypt, also prophetically pointing forward to the Second Exodus. The verses are very bold about Israel, ascribing to Israel the strength of a wild ox, a virtually unstoppable beast. The victory of Israel over the enemy nations shall be complete, by the Lord's power. Malachi prophecies of Remnant Israel in very similar terms, saying; "You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says YHWH of Hosts." Mal 4:3

In this context Israel is represented again like a lioness, resting anywhere. Lions do not worry about what place to choose as a resting place, because no matter where they are, none can overcome them. Such is the blessing of Abraham upon them which states; "Everyone who blesses you is blessed. Everyone who curses you is cursed."

Balaam Prophecy 4.

Now, behold, I go to my people: come, and I will inform you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days. Num 24:14

This prophecy clearly describes the victory of Israel over their surrounding enemies in the last days.

He took up his parable, and said, "Balaam the son of Beor says, the man whose eye was closed says; he says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High, and who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, and having his eyes open.. Num 24:15-16

Balaam describes himself as one whose eyes were closed to the truth, but then had them opened by the Almighty.

I see him, but not now. I see him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob. A scepter will rise out of Israel, and shall strike through the corners of Moab, and break down all the sons of Sheth. Num 24:17

Rabbi Moses ben Maimon explains these verses thusly:

I shall see him, but not now. This is David - I shall behold him, but not nigh. This is the king Messiah - A Star shall come out of Jacob. This is David - And a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel. This is the king Messiah - And shall smite the corners of Moab. This is David, (as it is written, 2Sa_8:2 : And he smote Moab, casting them down to the ground) - And shall destroy all the children of Sheth. This is the king Messiah, of whom it is written, (Psa_72:8), He shall have dominion from sea to sea. [Clarke, Num 24:17]

There is more that could be said regarding the star and the sceptre, but the general gist here is sufficient for your dream. The Kingdom would be established in David, and magnified throughout all the earth by "King Messiah" - one and the same as the stately Lion of your dream.
