News

Thanks to Pastor Otero and Olive Tree Fellowship: We wish to extent our 'thank you' to Pastor Denis Otero and Olive Tree Fellowship of Albuquerque, NM for kindly providing space at their facility for a meeting with Tsiyon listeners from New Mexico. Shelia, our Tsiyon Hospitality Coordinator, met with Tsiyon listeners there recently and had wonderful fellowship with them at that time. Dawn and I were glad that we were able to hook up with the meeting by telephone. It was great getting connected with our friends in the Albuquerque area. Many thanks to y'all for coming!

Tsiyon Live Help: Tsiyon is excited to announce the release of our new Tsiyon Live Help Program. Early next week, we will be releasing the initial stage of this program. Tsiyon Live Help will allow users to our Website to chat with a Live Tsiyon Volunteer who will be able to assist with questions, information and prayer requests in real time. This service will be available for a limited number of hours initially, but during the next few weeks we will expand the hours of availability. Please feel free to come to our website, look for the "Live Chat" icon and try it out! We look forward to serving our Partners and Listeners in this way. [By John, Tsiyon Volunteer Team Leader]

Listener Q + A

Listener Comment - Rapture Timing

I hear so many pastors say that the believers in Jesus will be raptured before the Tribulation begins. What do you believe about this? I love your radio program and have learned so much from you. Thank you.

Tsiyon Answer - Rapture Timing

There is one return of Messiah and that occurs at the end of the Tribulation. Both the historic and true doctrine of the "rapture" is that it will occur at the second coming of Messiah, at the end of the Tribulation. We have produced a number of messages that have dealt with this, available from the website, which prove this point.

Listener Comment - More Rapture Timing

Do you believe that the rapture spoken of in I Thess. 4 is pre-trib to catch up the church or is the second coming of Christ after the tribulation? I am very interested in your teaching but need to know if you assume the dispensational teaching position of pre-trib rapture or the classic or apostolic premill position that promotes a post-trib rapture that is the same as the coming of Christ (my own position). I do not see the church raptured out before the tribulation.

Tsiyon Answer - More Rapture Timing

Our position is identical to your own as regards the timing of the "rapture." A program of ours relative to the "rapture" that I think you will find interesting explains 1 Thess 4. You can find the program here.

Listener Comment - How to "Bless" YHWH

Good morning. I was hoping to receive your insight into the Hebrew word barak (H1288) "bless" as found throughout the scriptures. I was reading Psalms 145 and was struck by the question; how do we as men "bless" Yahweh the living God? "Daily I will bless thee..." ?? To kneel down, to bless? Other than honoring Him in all that we do, is there some "blessing" that we can bestow on Him? This is perplexing and I can't let it go. Any guidance you can offer is appreciated.

Tsiyon Answer - How to "Bless" YHWH

What a wonderful question to think upon! Let us consider what David said:

A Psalm of Praise, of David. I will extol You, my God, O King, And I will bless Your name forever and ever.
Every day I will bless You, And I will praise Your name forever and ever. Psalm 145:1,2

This is an acrostic psalm, with every verse starting with a consecutive letter of the Hebrew alphabet. I mention this to say that David put no small care into constructing this Psalm in a delightful way to bless His King! This striving after excellence in everything relative to YHWH is a very good example of what David means by blessing YHWH daily and forever - that is, always. In this very Psalm David is modeling this for us.

Let's consider this word, translated as "bless" (Strong's #1288). This is AHLB# 2039. The word has to do with bended knee, as in giving homage, giving a gift, or giving honor from bended knee. In verse 1 David says;

I will extol You, my God, O King, And I will bless Your name forever and ever.

The emphasis here is on YHWH as God and King. The governmental order of the Kingdom is thus in view. David bows before his rightful Superior, acknowledging His rightful place in the Kingdom Order. David was delegated to be king on earth, but David bowed before YHWH daily and always as King of the Universal Kingdom - and as King of his own heart.

I believe what David was saying is that every day he was deferring to YHWH as King in everything, and that he was joyfully bowing before YHWH to bless Him and not himself, throughout his reign and his life. Also, that he intended to keep on doing that forever.

Bending the knee has to do directly with worship. Of course this includes specific times of prayer, or worship through music, dance, and group worshipful expression. David did all of those things in blessing the Name of YHWH. However, that is not all there is to worship. David had a bended knee of the heart that blessed YHWH daily and always, in all things. This constant bowing before YHWH from within the heart, manifested in the life, is the true essence of Davidic worship! It is the constant offering of one's self as a gift for the use of YHWH. This is worship as modeled by David, his faithful Nazarean descendants and the greatest of them all, the Messiah, Y'shua the Nazarean.

Be Prepared

The early followers of Messiah were instructed in this sort of blessing of God. For example, Paul wrote:

Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. Rom 12:1

Constantly presenting one's body as a living sacrifice in service to our King, as Paul recommends here, is essentially carrying forward the heart of David in Psalm 145.

From Eliyahu

In this newsletter we include a couple of questions on the timing of the "rapture." Listeners ask us about this a lot lately. I'm not surprised, given the many signs of the times in evidence all around us. I also find it interesting that many who once accepted the pre-tribulation timing of the "rapture" are now re-assessing that view and are finding it wanting. Many of these folks are returning to the apostolic position on this, that the "rapture" of believers will occur at the Return of Messiah at the end of the Tribulation. Having returned to this truth, they see the necessity of preparing themselves spiritually for the upcoming events of this age. In this light, the other question above - how do we bless YHWH? - is highly relevant indeed! It is learning to bless YHWH at all times in the same way that David did that will see us all the way through these troubled days. My prayer is that the messages you hear from Tsiyon Radio will uplift you and encourage you to bless YHWH in this moment and forever, just as David did.

Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David
