Listener Comments - Listening via weekly CDs

[Note received from partners who don't have a computer and are listening via weekly CDs]

Greetings to you all. We still marvel at your faithfulness and courage. It would be so wonderful if we could be there with you too. CDs are good but live is better. Those that are present to work at this ministry are so blessed.

It may not be proper to say, but I feel as though it is hard for me to make conversation with others that say they are born-again Christians. Please pray that Yahweh develops HIS right Spirit in me.

We continue to look forward to the teachings every week and have just finished the album on Revelation. We have now started Judgment Day and plan to start listening to Revelation again to glean better understanding.

Please continue to keep us in your prayers. Health issues present some concern, however, the desire for spiritual growth and truth and to be part of HIS remnant are our greatest desire. There is such a feeling of helplessness and fear of not doing the right thing. We don't want to miss the mark.

We will continue to keep you all in our prayers and continue to thank you all for being there.

Listener Comments - About Bosheth Infiltration

If I had not been intensely subjected to precisely this paradigm for 7 years, no one on earth could have convinced me that your message is as relevant and critical to the environment we dwell in today as it is. I am still reeling from the fact that you have codified my own experience so unerringly! You do a great service in the Kingdom to call attention to the matter.

I would add that in order for these agents of destruction to function autonomously, that there may often be a generational as well as an experiential component of their preparation. These well prepared agents have learned to operate amongst us as wolves in sheep's clothing all the while answering to another voice. They qualify as those that think they do their god a favor (Jn 16:2) with the same fervor of Paul persecuting believers before his conversion. While there is an Haddasah characteristic to all whose lives begin to answer the voice of G-d, there is a very concerted counter measure to deceive G-d's very elect fulfilling MT 24:24 rising up in significant, striking proportion to all the purposes for which the bride is "come to the kingdom". I believe it will help G-d's people to examine the 'spiritual family tree' of these agents and consider just what authority they are working with - an earth bound fleshly kingdom or The Kingdom!

His purposes in me were seriously hampered before I rallied to the threat at hand. I find it interesting that the onslaught began immediately upon responding to Hebrew roots realities for the first time. If we are they that come out of great tribulation, then leadership throughout the event will very likely be born, not out of ease, but the agreement of His Word and His Spirit akin to dealing with Jezebel regarding nefarious agents such as the ones of the Bosheth Infiltration. We are not immune from prosecution and I pray that your cautionary message will keep many from crossing the line that alienates us from our Maker and the source of our deliverance. First we need discernment and for this I thank you more than words can express.
