New Website

We've been doing A LOT of work at the Tsiyon websites and we're really excited about it. However, site changes can have unexpected consequences, so if anything weird happens when you visit, please let us know.

Messianic Music Artists

We are quickly approaching launch of the new Tsiyon radio station, so if you are an independent Messianic music artist and would like your music on our station, please contact us immediately. Rest assured, your music will be in great company, judging from the fabulous music we've been receiving.

Listener Q + A

Listener Comment - so anxious

It would be so nice to be with you that we could talk and you could answer so many things we are so anxious about. I know we're told to be anxious for nothing, however, the flesh still seems to dominate too much. Does this still happen to you?

Tsiyon Answer - so anxious

Thanks for writing. I sincerely hope that we get to visit face to face sometime, perhaps in the Second Exodus if not before.

It is interesting that you mention anxiety. It seems that anxiety is everywhere. It dominates the atmosphere, pretty much wherever you go these days. It seems to be so ever-present that it would be impossible not to notice it, and even to be drawn into it from time to time. Personally, I believe this atmosphere of anxiety is being deliberately generated, through the manipulation of world events, with the anxiety bar being incrementally raised higher and higher until the world eventually reaches a level of chaos in which people will be willing to grasp on to any "solution", even if that "solution" is the one world government foretold in Scripture.

So how do we deal with this increasing anxiety level?

Here are a couple of Scripture verses that can help:

"When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You." Psalm 56:3

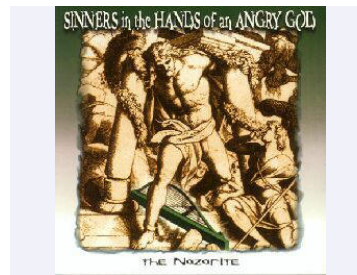

Even David experienced fear/anxiety. When he did he knew where to turn. He brought his fears before YHWH and put his trust in Him. Faith is the antidote for fear. When we need a little more faith all we need to do is to ask for it.

Then we have this verse you may be referring to:

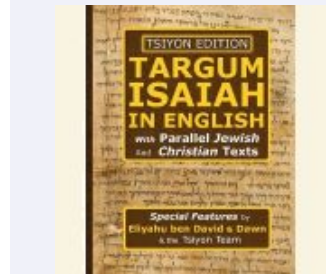

In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Messiah Yeshua. Php 4:6-7

This verse is very much like the Psalm we just considered. While it tells us not to "be anxious" - I believe it is saying we should not allow ourselves to continue in an anxious state of being. When disquieting things occur we deal with them through prayer, with gratitude toward God, making our requests to Him for all our needs. When we have fully prayed through those things that cause us concern a wonderful thing happens! Shalom happens! He fills our heart with the sort of peace that does not depend upon circumstances, but which comes to us through a realization of the great love that He has for His own. This perfect love casts out all fear, making real peace possible for us, 'guarding your hearts and your thoughts in Messiah Yeshua.' (see 1Jn 4:18)

Friends, I pray for you, that you may have a greater revelation of His love for you than ever before and that His peace will quiet all your fears and fill you with the joy of His presence! May He answer your petitions and fill all of your needs. In Y'shua Messiah, Amen!

From Eliyahu

Thank you for your continued prayers for the Tsiyon Team, as we prepare for the launch of our new radio station. We are making huge changes at the website, that aren't really visible yet, but will make the site much more functional for you. Also, programming is being prepared, music is being prepared, and technical details are being worked out - all to bring you the new radio station. While we are doing all this it is good to pause and reconsider the reason why. That's what you will be hearing in this week's program.

Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David
