"You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square: and its height shall be three cubits. You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it; and you shall overlay it with brass. You shall make its pots to take away its ashes, its shovels, its basins, its flesh hooks, and its fire pans: all its vessels you shall make of brass." Shemot/Exodus 27:1-3

From Eliyahu

Our present study on the Tabernacle continues. Admittedly, this is a difficult study topic to draw new listeners into. A lot of folks consider the topic either over their head or .. err .. boring. Of course, our regular listeners already know that I love to talk about the topics in Scripture that many consider boring! Many of these so-called "boring" topics come alive with hidden insights and amazing gems when seen under a fresh light of the Ruach HaKodesh. This study on the Tabernacle is no exception to that rule. I got a great comment on the website making that point from a listener commenting on our last Midrash, which was on this topic of the Tabernacle. DaughterOfTsiyon on January 25, 2014 at 6:55 pm said:

This program (#061) is fabulous--really they all are--but this one especially stands out. Eliyahu you have combined all of the great On The Road To Tsiyon teachings into this one portion of Scripture and made them come alive! I wish everyone could hear this midrash. It is amazing! The depth of wisdom, truth, and understanding is still blowing me away, days later after listening to this program. I need to listen again and again there is so much depth!

You must admit, this is an amazing response regarding a program on a topic most people find to be boring. I really appreciate it because others who might not listen to a program on this topic may change their mind and take time to listen, after reading that.

I got another comment on that same program from one of our members, which directly comes to grips with the problem of the Tabernacle topic being thought of as "dry." Julie wrote:

It's like the Father has his heart written out for us in the pages of His Torah, and yet we often fail to recognize the beauty and magnitude of it. Such amazing detail, Eliyahu. I get so caught up in your teaching, you could go on for two more hours and I wouldn't even notice the time. You teach the Torah Midrash with such color and clarity that I have never heard anyone teach before. You are very sensitive to the leading of His spirit because you show your listeners the very heart of Yahweh. Thank you also, Jacob, for the beautiful reading of Rev. 21- "Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He shall dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be among them!"....YEAH and AMEN!

I have always found these Tabernacle details to be somewhat dry....but now I look forward to pouring over them in full detail with your insightful teachings, Eliyahu. Thank you for all the hard work you put into bringing us a well rounded and balanced study each week. These truly are "vital, living discussions". May Yahweh bring abundant blessings to you and all those who labor with you.

Frankly, comments like this almost make me blush, and I could easily avoid drawing attention to this. However, I include this comment here because I want you to know from a listener's standpoint that our study of the Tabernacle is not the same old "dry" thing you may have come across before. This is vitally relevant information and I want you to join me in considering this! Please don't miss our latest program on this topic, featured in this Tsiyon News above. We are having a Torah adventure here, every week, and we don't want you to miss out!

Blessings and Shalom!

Eliyahu ben David

Tsiyon Answer:

Thanks for taking the time to write. I'm pleased that you have been blessed by our teaching regarding the Tetrad Moons. This topic is getting a lot of attention right now. However, Tsiyon first started teaching on this and related events before all the hype. Here are links to a few of our programs that deal with this:

Thanks for sharing about your family background and what happened with your mother and grandfather. That WWII period was an impossible time for many of our people. Like your grandfather, many chose to hide their Jewish identity to save the lives of their families. None of us can afford to judge them too harshly, because we may face times as difficult or worse in days ahead. It seems that things worked out well for you though, ending up in Canada and there coming to know Messiah. Not all of us were blessed with the distinctive Jewish nose that, going by your comments, apparently characterizes your family. In any case, all sorts of noses are gladly welcomed here at Tsiyon! I hope someday to meet you in person, if not before, perhaps when we return to the Land. Until then, I look forward to more fellowship with you via this ministry. Shalom and be Blessed, Eliyahu

Listener Prayer Request: Praying for fellowship in Australia

My prayer request is for strength, as i do not have any like minded people around me as i am in Australia Victoria about 1 hr 15 min drive from Melbourne city so i must say i am blessed to have a computer to have access to all the wonderful Hebraic teaching. Blessings and shalom to you all @ Tsiyon.

A Message from our Tsiyon Volunteers

Jacob, Shelia, and Dawn who answer email, phone, and mail inquiries here at Tsiyon have noted a few common questions that we thought we would take a moment in this week's newsletter to share with all of you. If you are having any technical issues or problems streaming the radio, we are here to help.

Shelia regularly answers phone calls from folks with problems as frustrating but easy to fix as lost passwords or log-in issues, to the more complex issues of helping work through a variety of technical problems with various different devices as well as being really friendly and willing to pray and encourage folks.

Jacob has been helping folks in the Tabernacle with prayer support, help to find their way around, and even offering support in learning to use the Chat feature for those who find online chat a new experience.

Dawn's been receiving notes from a number of people with questions regarding the Talmidim program. Did you know that if you can stream the radio station, you can do the entire Talmidim program for free!

What's the Talmidim program you ask?

It is a complete Hebrew Roots education. Combined with the ongoing weekly Torah studies, the Talmidim and Torah Club are designed to help you prepare fully for the upcoming second Exodus. So how do you participate in the Talmidim program? Simple. Tune in Tsiyon Road Messianic Radio. We have a number of ways for you to do so. When you tune in on work days, you will hear the great On The Road To Tsiyon with Eliyahu ben David and Dawn programming material of the Talmidim program. If you are a regular listener you will hear all of the Talmidim programs in about a year's time.

To make the most of the program and get credit for completing the Talmidim program simply visit www.tsiyon.org. If you haven't already done so, click on "Register" to obtain a log-in name and password. Next, whenever you hear an On The Road To Tsiyon program, log into the Tsiyon.org website and post a comment. You will no doubt see comments from other folks just like you who have also been working on completing the Talmidim program. Upon completion, you may be asked to get more involved in Tsiyon!

Now, we also have the Torah Club. Folks wonder if it is the same as the Talmidim program. The Midrash programs are entirely free to listen to and have download materials available too. Look for the Eliyahu ben David bet Midrash link on the home page at Tsiyon.org to download study materials, view the study schedule, and familiarize yourself with the midrash programming. The midrash airs each Sabbath on Tsiyon Road, so you can listen to the previous week's midrash and the current midrash on most Sabbath days. You can also log in and comment at the Tsiyon.org website about each program you listen to.

In addition, for those folks who choose to join the Torah Club the MP3 files of the midrash are available in an online archive to download and listen to again and again or via additional devices. For more details on the Torah Club, please log into the Tsiyon Tabernacle at www.tsiyon.net or give us a call today. We'd be glad to help out in any way we can or answer any questions you may have in locating resources at our website(s). Tsiyon has been broadcasting since 2006 and our websites are RICH with content YHWH has poured out. We welcome helping folks find just the resources they are looking for at our website(s) and/or spiritually.
