From Eliyahu

Hello Friends,

I had planned to publish the next installment of the Midrash this week, but ended up giving you a new On the Road to Tsiyon program instead. This program is very timely, since we are now well along into 2015, and this program discusses this 2015 Shmita year in the light of Bible prophecy. This is a special presentation that I delivered at the Tsiyon Tabernacle Dedication back in April. I've already published a video version of this program, which is available from our website. Also, a high quality video of the original presentation has been produced for your personal TV viewing, included in our 7 DVD Set of the entire Tsiyon Tabernacle Dedication program. The audio track of this presentation has been especially edited for this new radio broadcast, airing on Tsiyon Road.

This presentation is unlike anything elsewhere. It traces the prophetic connection between Jerusalem as Yah's prophetic timeclock, and all of the Shmita years we have been through since the liberation of Jerusalem in 1967 to the present. As you consider the events that have occurred in each of those Shmita years you can easily see YHWH moving His prophetic program forward through these last days. It is beyond coincidence how major events of the prophetic program fall in Shmita years! This is YHWH working in Holy Time.

Against this backdrop, we get into the discussion of this Shmita year, 2015. This discussion is especially directed toward the Remnant, anticipating great changes that especially concern us.

We are pairing up the new Shmita Year 2015 program with our program #225 from 2010, entitled Signs in the Moon, for this radio presentation. Yes, we were already preparing you for this 5 years ago, before most people ever even heard of a "tetrad." This is the original Tsiyon program that tells you all about the Tetrad blood moons, and their likely meaning as related to the Tetrads of 2014/2015. These two programs together form a "dynamic duo" you won't want to miss!

Friends, these are indeed times of great change. I'm praying for you, my Remnant brothers and sisters, that you may find release in Messiah from every chain this Shmita year of 2015.

Blessings and Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David

PS - Some important events on the world's calendar are scheduled to occur just ahead. These include the treaty President Obama is making with Iran, due to be concluded by June 30. This is a complete game-changer in the Middle East, and has already created a major reshuffling of alliances in the region. The news article below is an example of how this is impacting the State of Israel, setting the stage for war. Also, IS and other Sunni Islamic forces have made great advances in Syria, and are strengthening their positions for an onslaught against the Assad regime in Damascus. Clearly, this could have major implications for Israel and Bible prophecy. Tensions continue to run high between the USA and Russia, and the USA and China. George Soros recently stated that he sees WWII, involving these countries, breaking out sometime between the present and the early 2020s. Other events on the near horizon include globalist treaties that would undermine the sovereignty of the USA and other countries, transferring power to a globalist body instead - a plan to transfer USA control of the internet to a globalist body - and "climate change" deals that could result in taxes paid to a new globalist framework - and there is so much more all developing consistent with the Biblical prophetic picture.

US rebuffs Israel's last-ditch bid for nuclear constraints in Iran accord

Reprint from: DEBKAF file Exclusive Report June 21, 2015

US Security Adviser
Susan Rice says NO to Israel

Israel's National Security Adviser Yossi Cohen was invited to join two top US officials for dinner in Washington on June 15 to try and make Israel's case for amending the disastrous nuclear accord taking shape in Vienna between the six world powers and Iran, before it was too late. This meeting is reported here by debkaf file for the first time. It was hosted by US National Security Adviser Susan Rice and senior US nuclear negotiator Undersecretary of State Wendy Sherman.

The occasion was arranged by CIA Director John Brennan at the end of his visit to Jerusalem in the first week of June. He had come to offer senior Israelis, led by Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu, a behind-the-scenes briefing on the provisions the Obama administration had accepted for the final nuclear accord with Iran due to be signed by June 30.

This briefing was greeted in Jerusalem with shock and alarm. Very few of the conditions for a deal stipulated by the US upon embarking on the negotiations had survived: Iran would continue to enrich uranium, be allowed to bar international inspections of military facilities suspected of hosting nuclear research activity (where were Obama's "intrusive inspections?") and - Israeli officials heard this for the first time - the Iranian UCF facility at Isfahan would be expanded. This plant is engaged in the conversion of "yellow cake" to enriched nuclear material.

They also discovered that President Obama, who had originally promised the deal would provide for "snapping sanctions back" in the event of violations, had assured Tehran that once sanctions were lifted, they would not be re-imposed.

Netanyahu asked Brennan for time to digest the full extent of the Obama administration's retreat in the face of Iran's nuclear aspirations. He then asked for his national security adviser to be given a chance to propose changes that would allay some of Israel's concerns.

Brennan quickly set up a date for Cohen to be received in Washington.

debkafila's Washington sources reveal that at the dinner in Washington, the Israeli official tried a new tack with his hostesses, Rice and Sherman. On the understanding that the main clauses of the nuclear accord had been finalized and gone past the stage of amendment, he nonetheless suggested a number of insertions in the various clauses that would make it a better deal for American as well as Israeli security.

Rice and Sherman politely allowed him to finish talking and then turned his proposals down flat.

US and Israeli official sources agree that the invitation to Cohen had not been intended for any serious discussion between the two governments on the Iranian nuclear issue. The two top American officials dealing with the nuclear question barely heard a word that Cohen said. His journey to Washington was a complete waste of time.

Our new Tsiyon Truth Point Video: Why the Christian Church in America Cannot Survive Same-Sex Marriage

This new video documents the profound effect that same-sex marriage is having on the Christian Church system in America. We predict that the American Church system will completely collapse under the weight of the full assault that same-sex marriage is bringing in. This is huge. Please watch it and share the YouTube link with others.
