From Eliyahu

Succot Greetings in Messiah,

If you were one of our many Tsiyon members who logged on to view Day 1 of our live Daniel seminar last night - thanks for being with us!

A recurring comment was what a special feeling it was to be part of this live event, knowing that other remnant people from around the world are all tuned in to the same live stream at the same time! We felt that too - an amazing connectedness with our remnant brethren around the world!

We were so pleased with the response we got to the first night of the Daniel Seminar. I can only say, if you liked that, you are going to love the rest of the presentation!

Tonight we are going to delve into the Book of Daniel. We will look at the man, Daniel, to understand who he was and why YHWH revealed such amazing secrets to him.

We will also consider some of those amazing secrets ..secrets that span the ages from the time of Daniel down to our day, and beyond. Truly, as we consider the foreknowledge of YHWH revealed in these prophecies your faith is sure to be strengthened and you will rejoice to see how firmly our Righteous God is in control of the flow of history. This is so encouraging in these times, which can otherwise seem to be frighteningly chaotic.

Don't miss any of this! Be sure to join us for tonight's episode of the Beasts of Daniel Surfacing Live Seminar!

Now I want to remind you of a few details to help you make the most of this special event - especially if you haven't joined us yet.

Join us each night - The Daniel Seminar will be presented live each night, including tonight, all the way through October 6, at 8:00 PM CST.

Live Page is Open - The live page is available right now when you login at Tsiyon.net Notice, the Member site is at [Tsiyon.NET – not .ORG]. Again, login at Tsiyon.net

Get a Countdown - After you login you will see a big yellow graphic for the seminar that says “click here.” Click the graphic and the seminar presentation page will open. Once on that page click the video window and it will reveal a countdown showing the time until the program will be starting.

Live Event - This is a live event, which means we can't promise a usable recording of the event. If you want to be sure to see it please be there for the live event. Once we have concluded the whole event we will have time to look at the recordings of the event to make decisions on if and how those recordings may be used. Streaming issues, buffering issues, and other technical problems can affect recordings of live events, so we make no promises in advance about availability.

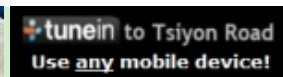

Live help – You will find live help at the bottom of the footer on each page of our Tsiyon.net site. If all helpers are busy the system will take your message until we can get back to you. We advise getting in early to be sure everything is working for you.

If you haven't done so already, please login now to be sure you will be able to access this special program. Live help is available to get you logged in, if you need it.

That's it for now. We will be looking forward to having you with us for tonight's live presentation!

Shalom, Eliyahu ben David
