From Eliyahu

Greetings in Messiah,

As I write, it is not yet Sabbath. That will be this evening at sundown with our Sabbath meeting at 8 PM CST.

This is historic for us, since it will be the first time we have broadcast a Sabbath Meeting as a live video stream for all of our Tsiyon Partners!

I've got to tell you, we are all so excited here about sharing these live meetings with our Tsiyon Partners. It will be awesome being in direct, live fellowship with all of you around the globe in real time. Yes, this sense of immediacy was great with the Daniel Seminar, but having this special time with you, our Tsiyon Partners, well, that is an extra special blessing.

We are planning the meeting to run an hour or so. It will include presentations by a number of folks here, doing pretty much what we've been doing for Sabbath Meetings already, but now - doing it with you included!

Tonight I'm planning to share more about the Messiah Star and its significance. I'm really jazzed about some things I've learned about this lately, and I want to share immediately with you. This pertains especially to July 7, 2015. Tsiyon Partners - Be sure to attend the Tsiyon Sabbath Meeting to hear this!

Here are some technical issues to get you into the Meeting:

1. You must be a Tsiyon Partner to view our live stream. If you are a free member and want to be included in this just login now at Tsiyon.net and sign up as a Partner.
2. You must be signed into Google, before you sign into Tsiyon.net to actually view the live stream at our website.

Here are the details on that:

YouTube offers the best live video streaming service available globally, which works great for the global reach of our membership. However, to use the member privacy technology, our partners need to be logged in to Google (owner of YouTube) while viewing the stream. Just login to Google first. Then login at Tsiyon.net and view the video stream.

If you don't presently have a Google login, no problem. You can get one free here. [I know - we are not thrilled with Google in some ways ourselves, but this is what works best. You don't need to use it for anything other than this if you don't want to.]

When you create your Google account use the same email address for your Google Account that you use with your Tsiyon account. This doesn't have to be a Google email address. The email address you submit to both Google and Tsiyon will act as a handshake with the live stream to be able to view the program, so long as you just login at Google before you login at Tsiyon.net.

One more thing: you will receive an email from Google/YouTube each time we broadcast a live stream inviting you to watch it at Google. You can and should disregard that and login to Tsiyon.net to view the stream.

This week we sent out invitation emails for everyone to join us for the private meetings on Google. Check your email.

This is more complicated to explain than to actually do. If you have any trouble with this contact us from our live help inside the website.

Well, I've got to get back to work on my graphics for tonight's Sabbath Meeting. See you there!

Shalom, Eliyahu ben David
