“Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of YHWH is risen on you. For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but YHWH will arise on you, and his glory shall be seen on you.” Isaiah 60:1, 2

From Eliyahu

Greetings in Messiah,

As I write today, December 26, 2015, there is less than one week left of this year, 2015 AD. However, for prophetic purposes the Hebrew Calendar of Scripture is more relevant. According to that, the Biblical year we are now in started in the spring of 2015 and continues for two and a half more months from now, after which a new year will begin, in the spring of 2016. Until then, this special shmita year - a year marked by signs in the sky and apocalyptic events - continues.

No big deal. What could happen in two and a half months, right?

Actually, quite a lot could happen. Here's a few possibilities:

1. A new round of global economic crisis could grip and shake the world.
2. The war in the middle east could eventually engulf Israel, setting off a series of events described in Psalm 83, bringing divine destruction on Israel's enemies.
3. Israel's fortunes could be completely changed for the better in the process, making the way for the Remnant Exodus.

In this regard, I read a SkyNews article this morning with the headline: Christians Face Middle East Elimination. This story is about today's comments by Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, decrying the fact that Christians may be completely driven from the middle east by ISIL.

Speaking of ISIL and their rampage the archbishop said; "This apocalypse is defined by themselves and heralded only by the angel of death."

Indeed, the angel of death seems to be hanging all over the middle east these days, and it does seem to be "heralding" a worse "apocalypse" soon to come. Further, it is not hard, at this point, to imagine how ISIL could be the instrument to bring that middle east apocalypse to a head. In 2008 I taught on this passage:

When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come!" And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hell followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him. Rev 6:7-8

I have said that this pale rider was released in 2008 and has been riding toward a major conflagration in the middle east in which a very large number of Israel's enemies will be destroyed. "His name is Death" - perhaps the Angel of Death himself associated with ISIL? In any case, this pale rider rides on. The main question remaining: when exactly, will that greater conflagration erupt? Since 2008 I have expected it to happen about the middle of the decade we are now in.

Back to this Shmita year though, and less foreboding possibilities.

Since the Shmita Year is a year of release, there is still time for individual remnant believers to seek that release in any area of their lives. Finances, health issues, relationship issues, spiritual issues - now continues to be an especially good time to be seeking release from bondage in any of those areas.

So, while the year on the Roman calendar is quickly running out, there is still significant time left in our Hebrew Year for YHWH to do great things. Let us be watchful and in prayer through this opportune time.

All of this is important to us because we are looking forward to the Remnant Exodus. My topic for tonight is "Remnant Exodus." I'm hoping that this presentation will not only bless you, but be an important resource you can use to help others understand what the Remnant Exodus is all about. Tsiyon Partners, be sure to join me for the live presentation, or view the recorded version thereafter. Either way, I think will enjoy this

Blessing and Shalom,

Eliyahu ben David

Islamic State leader Baghdadi warns Israel Attacks are Imminent

The leader of the self-declared Islamic State issued a defiant message to the West, warning “crusaders” not to dare fight on his turf.

In a rare public statement - his first in seven months - Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi said Western countries had "learned from" previous wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

"Crusaders and Jews don't dare to come on the ground because they were defeated in Iraq and Afghanistan," he said in a 23-minute long audio message released through an Isil-run internet account.

The message - dubbed an "alternative Christmas broadcast" on social media - appeared to be an effort to rally Isil followers against the growing number of enemies arrayed against them.

The leader, who has rarely been pictured and has not been heard from since he was believed to have been injured in an airstrike by Iraqi forces in October, Russian or US-led airstrikes had failed to weaken the group, which was only "expanding and getting stronger".

"Be confident that God will grant victory to those who worship him, and hear the good news that our state is doing well. The more intense the war against it, the purer it becomes and the tougher it gets," he said.

He also called on Saudi citizens - the second biggest contributor to Isil ranks - to "rise up" against their government as he dismissed the kingdom's newly formed Muslim coalition against the caliphate.

He also said Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (Isil) would soon be in Palestine to establish an Islamic state there. "Jews, soon you shall hear from us in Palestine which will become your grave," the voice, purporting to be Baghdadi, is heard saying.

"The Jews thought we forgot Palestine and that they had distracted us from it," he says in the recording. "Not at all, Jews. We did not forget Palestine for a moment. With the help of Allah, we will not forget it... The pioneers of the jihadist fighters will surround you on a day that you think is distant and we know is close. We are getting closer every day."

Baghdadi had reportedly been seriously injured in a Iraqi airstrike in October.

The leader is thought to constantly move between Isil's strongholds of Raqqa, northeastern Syria, and Mosul, in Iraq, in a bid to avoid airstrikes.

In the statement titled "Wait for we as well are waiting with you", Bagdadi boasted that the group had fought off advances in both Syria and Iraq.

The militant Sunni Islamist group controls swathes of Iraq and Syria but has come under intensifying military pressure in recent weeks.

On Saturday, Isil suffered a major blow after a US-backed alliance of Syrian Kurds and Arab rebel groups, backed by coalition planes, captured a dam from its fighters, cutting a main supply route of the militants across the Euphrates.

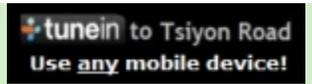

Colonel Talal Selo said the rapid advance overnight by thousands of troops from the Democratic Forces of Syria had brought the dam, 15 miles upstream from the militants' de facto capital Raqqa, under their control on Saturday afternoon.

Since the US-backed alliance was formed last October, its fighters have opened several major offensives against Islamic State with the ultimate goal of capturing Raqqa.

We presented this Beasts of Daniel Surfacing Seminar live over 8 days of Succot 2015. It is a major video presentation which explains what is going on in the world around us right now from the standpoint of the Book of Daniel - and it forecasts where we are going. Viewers have called it "incredible" and "amazing" - and now you can see the recordings of the entire event at no charge to you! Just register as a free member at Tsiyon.net and the Daniel Seminar is all there for you to view. Are you a Tsiyon Member already? Great! Just login and see the Daniel Seminar while all this is available free. Enjoy it, and be sure to tell your friends, so they can enjoy it too.
