Globalist Attack on Police?

Groups that are now spearheading the war on police have received millions of dollars from globalist "fat cats" to bring chaos to the streets of America. ...more below

From Eliyahu

Hello Friends,

Probably, like me, you are feeling horrified by the attacks on police now under way across America. These attacks are undoubtedly making all Americans, regardless of ethnicity, less safe on our streets.

It is somewhat mystifying that this is happening at this point in time. While nobody would dispute that racism against African Americans has been a part of American history, all the data seems to support that great strides have been made, and continue to be made, in this arena. In fact, the data suggests that racism by police officers is presently at the lowest level it has ever been, and virtually no longer exists at any measurable level. Following are some facts to support that. First, there's this:

In 2013, racial or ethnic minorities comprised 27 percent of local police officers, the Bureau of Justice Statistics(BJS) reported Thursday morning. That's up from 15 percent in 1987, the first year the periodic study was conducted, and 25 percent in 2007, the last year it was conducted. In terms of raw numbers, there were 130,000 minority local police officers in 2013. That's an increase of 78,000 officers from 1987 and 13,000 from 2007. [Newsweek, 5/14/15]

We have never had more racial diversity in the police departments of America than we do right now. As of the 2010 census, the population at large identified as "white" amounted to 75% of the population of America. Yet, the quote above tells us that 27% of local police officers are from racial minorities. In other words, minorities actually have a higher statistical representation among the police than do whites. In fact, some cities, New York City being one example, have police departments comprised of over 50% racial minority officers, with white officers actually being the smaller part of the force. Further, it is not uncommon for minority officers to be promoted to chief of police, with white officers serving under their command in a professional manner. None of this squares with the notion of racism as a major problem among the police.

But what of the Youtube videos of black men slain by police? If you dig deeper you will find that in the overwhelming number of cases more is involved than the spin promoted by the liberal press. In most if not all cases the person shot has a criminal and/or drug history and has presented a threat to police officers. Of course, mistakes happen. But they happen just as often, or more often, with white people being shot as compared to black people. Consider this:

"It is the most surprising result of my career," said Roland G. Fryer Jr., the author of the study and a professor of economics at Harvard.

Mr. Fryer is the youngest African-American to receive tenure at Harvard and the first one to receive a John Bates Clark medal, a prize given to the most promising American economist under 40.

The study examined more than a thousand shootings in 10 major police departments, in Texas, Florida and California.

In officer-involved shootings in these cities, officers were more likely to fire their weapons without having first been attacked when the suspects were white. Black and white civilians involved in police shootings were equally likely to have been carrying a weapon. Both of these results undercut the idea that the police wield lethal force with racial bias.

The result contradicts the mental image of police shootings that many Americans hold in the wake of the killings (some captured on video) of Michael Brown in Ferguson, Mo.; Laquan McDonald in Chicago; Tamir Rice in Cleveland; Walter Scott in South Carolina; Samuel DuBose in Cincinnati; Alton Sterling in Baton Rouge, La.; and Philando Castile in Minnesota. [The New York Times, 7/11/16]

The facts do not support the contention that police are shooting black men in large numbers because of racism. Then why has this become such a huge issue in America today?

The answer is simple. There is big money stoking and hyping all of this up. This is part of the globalist agenda to destroy liberty and to take down America.

Roland G. Fryer Jr.
Professor of
at Harvard.

That may seem like an outrageous claim, but I've got the facts to prove it. I'm going to share these facts live, tonight, with our Tsiyon Partners, at Tsiyon.Net. Things are moving fast according to the prophetic agenda I outlined to you in the Daniel Seminar, and these latest events are part of that. Don't miss this important presentation tonight, at 8 PM CST, at Tsiyon.Net.

Shalom, Eliyahu

Iranian military official: We have 100,000 missiles in Lebanon ready to hit Israel

Reprint: Jerusalem Post - 07/03/2016

According to Hossein Salami, deputy commander of the IRGC, "the opportunity to destroy Israel is now better than ever."

President Hassan Rouhani said the last year's nuclear deal "was the cheapest way to achieve Iran's goals and interests."

Speaking in Tehran on Saturday at an iftar meal breaking the Ramadan fast, Rouhani said the pre-Iran nuclear-deal era is past and Iran now needs to take advantage of the new atmosphere to pursue its "national interests more than before," Iran's Islamic Republic News Agency reported.

The country's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei on Saturday called for student associations to establish a "unified anti-US and anti-Zionist front" among the Muslim world's students, Tasnim News Agency reported.

"By using advanced means of communication and in cyberspace, general campaigns can be formed by Muslim students based on the opposition to the policies of the US and the Zionist regime of Israel so that when needed, millions of young Muslim students create a big movement in the Islamic world," he said.

Khamenei also warned against plots by enemies seeking to sabotage the country.

Separately, on Saturday, Fars News Agency reported a senior official of the Islamic Revolutionary Guards as having said Israel's Iran Dome anti-rocket system has vulnerabilities that were revealed in recent wars.

On a similar note, the deputy commander of the Revolutionary Guards, Brig.-Gen.

Hossein Salami, said on Friday "more than 100,000 missiles are ready to fly from Lebanon," according to Tasnim.

"Today, the grounds for the annihilation and collapse of the Zionist regime are [present] more than ever," he declared, saying there are "tens of thousands of destructive long-range missiles" from Islamic territories aiming at all of "occupied" Israel.

"If the Zionists make a wrong move, all the occupied territories will come under attack from dedicated fighters and, God willing, the territories will be liberated," Salami warned.

On Friday, Rouhani accused Western powers of trying to exploit differences between the world's Sunni and Shi'ite Muslims to divert attention from the Israel-Palestinian conflict, state television reported.

"We stand with the dispossessed Palestinian nation," he said.
