From Eliyahu

Hello friends,

I'm lovin' Messiah's Sermon on the Mount!

This is our study material right now in our Tsiyon Academy meetings, and it is truly life-changing stuff! Amazing how Messiah started His ministry and just stepped out there, right at the beginning, with this mind-blowing teaching!

He was teaching Torah, but not as the Pharisees taught it. In fact, he warned His listeners, and us, that unless we are more righteous than the Pharisees we will not enter the Kingdom!

That was the heart of His message - righteousness. The Torah embodies the righteousness of YHWH. Yet Israel (that's us) seldom gets the depth of that truth in the Torah. In fact, historically we have gotten hung up on certain parts while leaving out others, getting the priorities wrong. At times we have messed up our understanding of the Torah so badly that we end up interpreting it as saying the complete opposite of what it has really been telling us all along! This problem has impeded and blocked the righteousness of the Torah from fully being realized by Yah's people. When this has happened it has had terrible results in people's lives. Messiah's words in the Sermon on the Mount are meant to correct our thinking in some of these problem areas, teaching us what the true righteousness of the Torah actually is in those areas.

Messiah's aim in the Sermon on the Mount is to teach us how to live and walk in righteousness. He understood that had been the goal of the Torah from the beginning. YHWH gave us the Torah to help us become righteous people who could live in fellowship with Him - and represent Him in the earth - being the salt and light of the world. He also knew that the success of Israel as a nation, and as families and individuals, depended upon our actually becoming righteous. He gave us everything we needed to actually become righteous people, but despite all that, we often took the opposite path. Historically, This has been a chronic problem for Israel.

That is why YHWH often reminded Israel, carried on a controversy with Israel even, pressing the need for Israel to be righteous. The prophets are full of this, for example, this verse from Amos:

"Let justice roll as a river, and righteousness as a mighty stream." Amos 5:24

YHWH spoke this through Amos to Israel to remind His people that producing righteousness is the central business of our nation! It is what Yah wants from us above everything else in this world!

But did we listen? If we had we would be living in our hereditary possession in the Land right now - not living in the Exile in the ungodly world.

And why is that?

It is so because righteousness is a requirement of retaining our place in the Land. We are not there right now because our Israelite ancestors failed in their righteousness on a grand scale.

So we wait for the Remnant Exodus.

Perhaps we need to do much more than wait. Perhaps we need to focus on producing righteousness like a mighty river .. showing ourselves worthy of the Land .. worthy of the Return. It is not too late. We still can rise up as Yah's nation, even while in the Exile, to be His righteous salt and light in the midst of the nations of this world.

But how?

The Sermon on the Mount is how.

There Messiah is telling us what true righteousness is - what YHWH is really looking for from His people. If we can just really get Messiah's message, and actualize it in our lives personally and corporately, we will be sitting under our own vine and fig tree in our Land in no time!

Just give YHWH the righteousness He is looking for from us and viola! We will be back in our Land in no time at all!

We need Messiah's Sermon on the Mount message right now. Be there for our meeting tonight at 8 PM CST ready to learn at the feet of our Master, Yeshua.

Shalom, Eliyahu

'Biblical' storm stops on border of Israel and Syria

Reprint: Mirror, 8 DEC 2016

Claims are being made that a biblical storm cloud of dust and rain was 'sent by God' to act as a barrier between Israel and ISIS.

The huge storm allegedly stopped on the border of Syria, and was 'unable' to enter Israel's Golan Heights region. Footage of the strange weather phenomenon was uploaded to Facebook by Israel News Online. They claimed that the storm was an act of God, or 'divine intervention' to protect Israelis from the notorious terror group.

It is believed that the storm occurred last Thursday, December 1, at around 8am.

Many believe the storm was a sign from God (Photo: Facebook/Israel News Online)

On Facebook, Israel News Online wrote: "A weather phenomenon occurred at 8am Thursday on the other side of the Syrian border, in the same place where ISIS attacked Israel. This strange storm of what appears to be dust, cloud and rain did NOT cross the border fence into Israel. It sat like a barrier between ISIS and Israel."

Some viewers believe the weather phenomenon was protecting Israel from ISIS (Photo: Facebook/Israel News Online)

One Facebook user replied: Absolutely the divine intervention of God protecting Israel. Amen!"

Other more cynical viewers disagreed, adding: "Actually, sorry to be boring, but it's simply a weather phenomenon." But Israel News Online hit back almost immediately, writing: "Yes it is of course. Now do we ask who controls the weather? Whatever the cause it sat between ISIS and Israel and did not enter Israel."
