From Eliyahu:

Shalom friends,

Lately we have been streaming our Corona Virus videos on a number of platforms, including Facebook,

YouTube, Twitter, Twitch, Periscope, etc. We have been doing this because we believe when a person follows the instruction from Scripture, their obedience can save their life from much that is harmful, including infection from the pandemic. Since many don't know how the Bible applies to this situation, we have felt duty-bound to get this teaching out to as many people as possible. Not surprisingly, despite all that is out there on the Corona Virus, solid Biblical advice is hard to find. What we are sharing is meeting a real need for many, who are looking for guidance through the trials this pandemic is bringing on us all. Through streaming our videos on multiple platforms we are reaching many of these people. For example, our Facebook engagement has increased by over 4000% since we have been streaming on that platform! However, smaller broadcasts too, have met a real need. Above is a post showing one of our streaming videos, with only 24 viewers at that time. Look at how that viewer's post begins: "Wow! I must repent."

Shabbat Lounge @SabbathLounge · Mar 24

Wow! I must repent. I had been rebellious against the quarantine. I was upset about how my rights are violated. Interesting take in it. Although I will say the biblical way to adress this quarantine is to isolate the infected person not everyone.

When one person repents and changes their life to follow Scripture more closely, heaven rejoices. Nothing is more rewarding for a servant of Messiah, than that! Righteous people we have never known before are changing their lives because of the Bible truths we are streaming, and this could actually save lives. That's what this is about. I'm sharing this with you, because, as a supporter of Tsiyon, your prayer and financial support makes you a sharer in this good fruit for the Kingdom. Thank you for your support!

The rest of the comment above also deserves an answer. The comment adds; "the biblical way to address this quarantine is to isolate the infected person not everyone." This is a common misconception, but is not exactly true. In Leviticus it is not only the infected person that is isolated. Actually, any person who may be a carrier of the contagion is separated away until it can be proven that they are not contagious. In our modern situation in this pandemic, any of us could be contagious with no symptoms whatsoever, justifying self-isolation of everyone until the plague passes. Self-isolation is not just about keeping ourselves virus-free, it is about not infecting others in the event that we have the virus. In other words, this is about the second greatest commandment, "love your neighbor as yourself." Surely, we want our neighbors to protect us from the virus - should we not do the same toward them? This is the guiding principle behind the methods employed in Leviticus as respects dealing with contagious diseases. If the righteous will follow the biblical instruction, then we will get through this last-days plague far better than the world, who do not obey the Good News.

Recent news stories tell us that many people who do not normally pray are now praying, because of the Covid-19 pandemic. In fact, in his April 5th press conference President Trump urged Americans to "turn in prayer in our own personal relationship with God" for themselves and their neighbors. He said:

President Donald Trump asks for prayers from the American people at his April 5 coronavirus news conferences. (Photo: Screen capture)

"We can use this time [self-isolating] to turn in prayer in our own personal relationship with God. I would ask that all Americans pray for the heroic doctors and nurses, for the truck drivers and grocery store workers, and for everyone fighting this battle ... And I see people from apartment houses screaming and shouting and singing their praises. It's an incredible thing. They're warriors. These doctors and nurses, they're running into buildings and they're literally putting it on as the doors are opening. They're putting all this stuff on and running inside and they're running inside to tremendous danger, tremendous danger. But most of all, I'd like to ask for your prayers, for the families who have lost loved ones. Ask God to comfort them in their hour of grief. It's a great hour of grief for our nation, for the world."

While I may have doctrinal differences with President Trump, that does not stop me from seeing how significant this is. It is a wonderful thing for many people to be turning back toward their Creator in the midst of this global crisis, and I am so glad to see it happening! As for President Trump calling for prayer: wow, when is the last time you've seen a political leader look to God rather than man for the solutions?! When people turn back toward God, deliverance follows! We had already started telling folks about the Passover Month of Deliverance before President Trump's call for prayer. Now we see this as confirmation of how perfect this moment is, when many are more sensitive to God then has happened in years, for us to unitedly engage in a concerted month of prayer for many to repent, for the righteous, and for everyone fighting the battle against Covid-19.

All of this is part of the reason why this year Tsiyon will be observing a different kind of Passover. We are calling it "Passover Month of Deliverance." If you haven't read about it yet you can get a lot of the details from this link. This Passover Month of Deliverance is inspired by the first Passover, which resulted in a great deliverance of Yah's people from the plague that killed all of the firstborn males of Egypt. His people went into their homes, observed the Passover as commanded, and the plague passed over their homes, because of the blood of the lamb. It doesn't take a great deal of imagination to see the parallel with this Passover of Deliverance during this Covid-19 plague. Only this time, we are talking about a concerted month of prayer, culminating in a great Passover celebration on the 14th of the 2nd Hebrew month.

We are kicking off all of this at our live-streamed Sabbath meeting tonight. It will be different than other meetings that are usually streamed to our Tsiyon Partners. This meeting will also be publicly streamed on various platforms, so that all kinds of believers in Messiah can access it, and join in this special Passover month of prayer with us. Please pray with us now that users of social media platforms across the web will come and see this, as the Lord leads. Having these new viewers with us for the first time will change the nature of this special meeting, because we will have to speak on a level that all of these new viewers can grasp. Your job, should you accept it, is to pray for all of these new viewers during the meeting, that they may be blessed by what they learn from spending some time with us, and that they and their families will find the deliverance we are all seeking in prayer over the course of this special Passover month. This timely video stream will be aired live tonight, at tsiyon.net, at 8 pm cst, and a video recording will be shown thereafter for a limited time. This is absolutely free. Tell your loved ones and friends to register free of charge and join us for this special meeting. Great things can come of this, and we are so glad to have you included!

Good health and many blessings to you all!

Shalom,
Eliyahu
