From Eliyahu

Consider this:

Have you ever wondered why so many countries of the world symbolize themselves on their respective flags with pictures of the sun, moon or stars? Argentina, Uruguay, Kazakhstan, Rwanda, Taiwan, Philippines, Macedonia, and Nepal all display the sun on their flags. Turkey, Tunisia, Singapore, Malaysia, Algeria, Pakistan, Maldives, and Libya all display the moon and stars on their flags. Some countries displaying stars on their flags, include Somalia, Vietnam, Morocco, China, Cameroon, Senegal, Ghana, Myanmar, Ethiopia, Surinam, Chile, Panama, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Bosnia, Solomon Islands, Venezuela, Honduras, Uzbekistan, and of course the 50 stars of the USA flag, having more stars than any other flag. Finally, I would be remiss to leave out the flag of the state where I live, the Lone Star State of Texas.

Over 1/4th of all flags contain stars. Commonly this is the five-pointed star which appears on the flags of 49 countries, also known as the Pentagram. Wikipedia sums up some of the facts about this symbol:

"A pentagram (sometimes known as a pentalpha, pentangle, pentacle or star pentagon) is the shape of a five-pointed star polygon. Pentagrams were used symbolically in ancient Greece and Babylonia, and are used today as a symbol of faith by many Wiccans, akin to the use of the cross by Christians. The pentagram has magical associations. Many people who practice [[Modern with all its magical powers and Paganism|Neopagan]] faiths wear jewelry incorporating the symbol. Christians once commonly used the pentagram to represent the five wounds of Jesus. The pentagram is also used as a symbol by other belief systems and is associated with Freemasonry." [Source: Wikipedia/Pentagram]

Clearly, the pentagram five-pointed star originates in ancient paganism. The Egyptian hieroglyph representing "star" had five points and looked about like the symbol on the picture of the Egyptian goddess to the left. The Egyptians and other ancient pagan peoples believed the stars to be gods, and worshipped them. The goddess Sopdet, the Egyptian personification of the star Sirius, is always shown with the five-pointed star hieroglyph on her head. This is the origin of the pentagram that is "associated with Freemasonry" that appears on so many flags of countries all over the world today. Both the sun and the moon have similar ancient pagan associations with false gods, and that has a lot to do with how they ended up on the flags of so many countries.

The flags of the countries of the world give evidence of an unwelcome truth about the world's history. Long ago, before man spread out over the surface of the earth, humanity chose to reject the Creator and to seek out other "gods" in the heavens. Their method was to build a tower by which they could abandon the One True God, to instead connect with their supposed star-gods in the heavens. The Scriptures document the rebellion of the world against God:

Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there. Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth." But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. And the LORD said, "Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them. Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth. Genesis 11:1-9 NKJV

Because the nations abandoned their Creator, He honored their choice and left them to it. That choice of abandoning the Creator has not been a good thing for mankind. The Apostle Paul explains:

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man--and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving, unmerciful; who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them. Romans 1:18-32 NKJV

Look at the world today. The unity of evil that was frustrated at the Tower of Babel is now being forced upon the world by the modern Nimrods worshipping the gods of Money and Technology. Globalism is spreading faster than the "pandemic" and the forces of all of the pagan 'gods' are now being unleashed in digital form to deceive the people of the world. Yes, the elite of the countries of the world would like to think that the stars are in their favor, and that their perverted globalist idea of paradise without God is now within their grasp. No longer content with a tower, they dream of becoming gods themselves through technology enabling travel to the stars. They glory in their sin and in the arrogance of their "debased minds." They will do their worst, and then the "wrath of God" will fall upon them and their dystopian nightmare, and all of it will be wiped away to give way to the righteous government of the Kingdom of Messiah.

They are liars. They have no claim to the stars. There is but one nation written in the stars with a Divine Destiny, written there before Man ever existed! That nation is the Twelve Tribe Nation of Renewed Israel! Now, in the midst of the growing darkness of the arrogant rebel nations a light has appeared to pierce the darkness and show the righteous a way through the dark night now enveloping the world! The hope and compass for this time is, and has always been, with Yah's Nation - the only nation written in the stars! Get ahead of the curve and get on with your Divine Destiny with the True Israel!
