PAUL: NEVER PART OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH!

FOR WE HAVE FOUND THIS MAN TO BE A PLAGUE, AN INSTIGATOR OF INSURRECTIONS AMONG ALL THE JEWS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, AND A RINGLEADER OF THE SECT OF THE NAZARENES. ACTS 24:5

From Eliyahu

Consider this:

Sometimes people ask me if I am a "Christian." My response to that must be; "what is your definition of a Christian?" This question must be asked because, even among those who readily identify as being "Christian" there is wide disagreement about the definition of the word. The book, Religion in America: A Very Short Introduction observes this fact about Christians:

Although all of them have their historical roots in Christian theology and tradition, and although most would identify themselves as Christian, many would not identify others within the larger category as Christian. Most Baptists and fundamentalists, for example, would not acknowledge Mormonism or Christian Science as Christian. In fact, the nearly 77 percent of Americans who self-identify as Christian are a diverse pluribus of Christianities that are far from any collective unity. [Beal, Timothy (2008). Religion in America: A Very Short Introduction. Oxford: Oxford University Press. p. 35.]

"A diverse pluribus of Christianities" that is "far from any collective unity" is not something that I can identify with, on Scriptural grounds. Paul the apostle wrote this:

There is one Body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one immersion, one Elohim and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all. Ephesians 4:4-6

Paul, who wrote these words in the 1st century, knew of only one body of disciples - not a diverse pluribus of Christianities. Clearly, he viewed that one body as the authentic assembly of disciples. All other divergent groups must therefore derive from a schism away from that authentic group. Indeed, what we call the "Christian Church" today is in fact a schism away from the authentic body instituted by Messiah, built up by Messiah's family and His apostles, including the apostle, Paul. In fact, that Gentile schism took place in the second century, so that what we call the "Christian Church" did not even exist as a movement until then. Paul, was a believing Jew, not one of the heretics involved in that Gentile heresy, even though the Church often claims him as one of their own.

Invite your Christian friends to see this with you - tonight at our Tsiyon Meeting!

None of this is hard to prove. There is abundant documentation revealing the Gentile scam that was behind this power grab by the then more numerous Gentiles who broke away from the Hebraic body of believers established by Messiah Himself. Since then, based on the principle of Messiah "you will know them by their fruit" the Church has proven itself an imposter. Indeed, the pagan trappings of the Church, as well as its bloody history over centuries of time, are not the "good fruit" that identifies an origin in the "good tree." This is why the Christian Church has not been able to fulfill the Divine Will on this earth in nineteen hundred years, and never will. Simply put, it is not of the tree Messiah planted in this earth to bring His people to Him, but is instead, a lie and a fraud out of the rotten tree of mystic Babylon. (Matt 7:15-20)

In saying this I am not saying that all who are presently involved in the Church are themselves heretics and imposters. There are many sincere believers in the Church, thinking that it is His authentic body. In that sense, they are captives in Babylon who need to learn the truth to escape its fast-approaching fate. These words from the Book of Revelation speak to them:

"I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities." Revelation 18:3-5

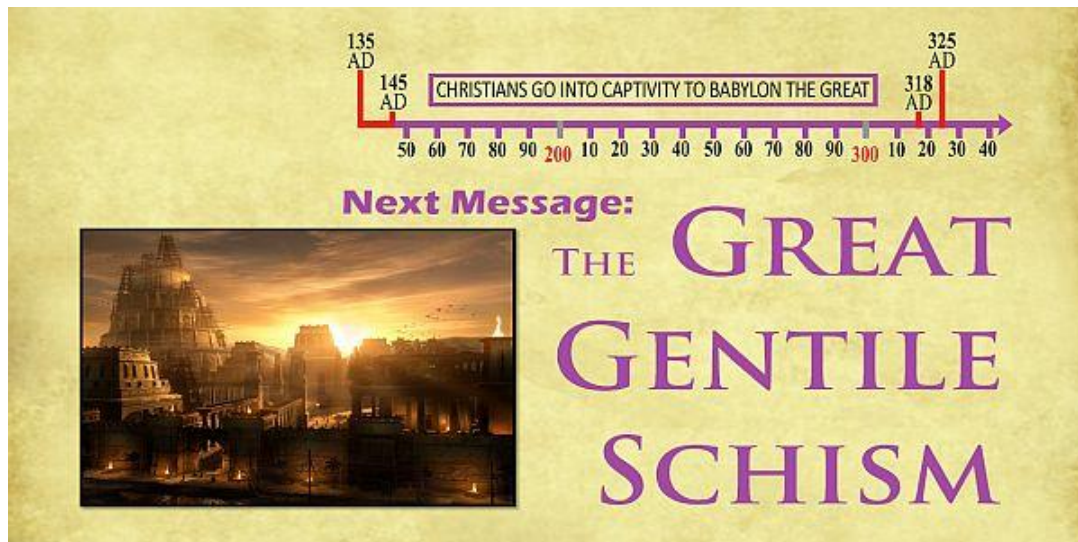

Can any sincere believer afford to overlook the evidence? Please join us online tonight at Tsiyon.Net at 8:00 PM CST for Paul: Never part of the Christian Church - and don't forget to invite your Christian friends.

Blessings and good health to you!
