The graphic features a vibrant green background with a radial light effect emanating from the center. In the center, the word "Love" is written in a stylized, blocky font. The letter "L" is on the left, "ove" is on the right, and a large, stylized "E" is in the middle, partially enclosed by a circular, metallic-looking ring. At the bottom of the graphic, the text "TSIYON.ORG" is on the left and "TSIYON.NET" is on the right.

Consider this:

Chaos is everywhere, while, making matters worse, society seems to be completely fractured. Where is the unity it will take for the world to climb out of this mess? Right now, unity seems like such a desirable goal. It would be wonderful if everyone would agree to live by the same rules, share with one another, and work together for the common good. Further, most people would say they would like to live in a world like that. Yet, sadly, the world has never been able to produce true unity. Why not?

The failure of unity has not been for lack of trying. Karl Marx envisioned a communist egalitarian utopia built upon a sort of absolute and unbridled equality. Through such a radical equality, unity, it was believed, could be achieved. Through the 20th century the egalitarian utopian goal, when tried, has always turned into a totalitarian dystopia in which those who were more equal than others forced everyone else to agree with them. Those who could not comply were persecuted and even killed in unthinkable numbers. Here I point to over one-hundred-twenty MILLION (120,000,000) people murdered by their own governments in the 20th century, because those people were out of unity with their leaders! [For the full list click here.]

"Those who don't learn from history are doomed to repeat it" the saying goes. Apparently, there must be a lot of people either ignorant of history today, or else a lot of very slow learners, or both. I say that because Western countries that should know better, including the USA, are rushing down the "progressive" path toward an imagined egalitarian utopia (i.e. communism). An insanity has taken hold in which it is not enough for you to live and let live. No, instead societal pressure is applied requiring everyone to agree that sexual deviates can't control their behavior, that biology does not determine gender, that having ones body drugged and mutilated can turn a man into a woman or a woman into a man, that all white people are racists, and that you can "own nothing and you will be happy." All of these positions are provably in the realm of mental illness, yet you are required to put yourself in the category of the mentally ill by pretending as if the tooth fairy is for real. All of this societal control is, we are given to assume, for the sake of bringing the world to a state of "unity" in a globalist utopia.

If history is any indication of where all of this is going to take the world, and it is, a lot more than 120,000,000 people are going to be sacrificed by the globalists for the sake of world "unity" in the horror show now being cooked up by the world's elite.

Why all this pressure to conform to the absurd? Its conditioning, training, preparing the gullible to be good global citizens who will easily comply and adopt every new crazy directive coming through "official" channels dominated by the globalist elite. This will eventually bring about a forced conformity (not real unity) as the elite set all the goals and standards and the vast population of peons does what they are told.

"What of the ones who won't comply?", you ask. Don't you already know? There is a standard procedure for this. China, USSR, North Korea, Vietnam, Cambodia, (and all other similar regimes) have had the same answer to that question! Use the non-conformists as slave labor and/or kill them by the millions. Now scale up this history lesson to the coming regime that will rule over the entire world! In the warped thinking of that power-elite everyone who won't comply is standing in the way of "sustainability" of the earth - so must, of course, be "removed." The numbers of people who will lose their lives to this globalist insanity staggers the imagination.

By now, history has already given us all the answers on where all of this is going - and its going there much faster than most any of us can imagine right now. The manufactured global chaos now under way, with more and worse coming down the pipeline, WILL breakdown the resolve of the masses. Before the decade is over the the people of the world will be so worn down that they will gladly embrace the cries of "peace and safety" the one world government will be offering them. During the honeymoon period it may seem like world unity has finally been achieved - only to give way to the worst nightmare this world has ever seen!

Here is the reason the globalist bid for unity must end in disaster: There can be no unity without including the One from Whom all Creation derives its being. Ironically, unity without the Creator is not sustainable! EVERYTHING comes from that One! This includes the only set of moral principles and standards of behavior that can insure unity among mankind. YHWH created us. YHWH knows what is right and wrong, and how we need to behave to live together in love, joy, peace, truth, and yes, unity. Real unity comes from real Oneness - Oneness with The One, The First, The Source. Only fools believe they can have global unity without the Creator of all things being at the center of that unity they claim to seek.

As we observe the world being ushered toward a promise of global unity based on the flawed ideology of demonically inspired madmen, we will need to make a choice. Everything is on the line. Will we go along to get along, with the vast majority of mankind? -or- Will we choose the narrow road, the harder road, the hated road, the only road that leads to life? Whose side are you going to be on? Your best bet is to make up your mind now, and act accordingly. That way, you will be where you need to be when the world's rush toward oblivion seeks to swallow you up with the rest of the masses. Your eternity is at stake. Now is the time to act.

Fortunately, and not by chance, the winning strategy to meet this challenge was all mapped out for us nearly 4,000 years ago. Not surprisingly, this crazy modern world gives no regard to that ancient path, considering it long outdated and completely out of step with modern problems. They are wrong, because the One who does not change has given us truth that does not change. This truth is always the truth, and always will be true. Something that solid and lasting is completely foreign to this rapidly changing world. But for the righteous, that unchangeable solidity is exactly what they need to see them through the end of the world. Don't miss our online meeting tonight in which this amazing truth will be clearly set forth. The meeting is at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM, CST. This is what you need to know.

Blessings and good health to you,
