A graphic illustration of a narrow path leading to a bright light. The path is a narrow strip of brown earth, flanked by dark brown soil. At the end of the path is a bright yellow light. Above the path, the words 'Yeshua's' are written in a blue, cursive font on a wooden sign. Below that, the words 'Narrow' and 'Way' are written in the same font on two separate wooden signs. At the bottom of the path, the text 'Join Us @ TSIYON.NET' is written in a bold, white font on a dark blue rectangular background. Below this, a quote from Matthew 7:14 is written in a blue, cursive font on a wooden sign: "Strait is the gate, and narrow the way, which leads unto life, and few there be who find it." Matthew 7:14.

"Strait is the gate, and narrow the way, which leads unto life, and few there be who find it." Matthew 7:14

From Eliyahu

Consider this:

We are introducing something new from Tsiyon which we are calling "Yeshua's Narrow Way". I'm very excited about the opportunities this will open up. Now, here is why we need to do this.

Most of the folks that come our way were introduced to Jesus as seen through the lens of the Christian Church. Eventually they find their way to Tsiyon because they intuitively feel there is more to Jesus than the Church has given them. I am not criticizing Christians here. In fact, I am saying that the Church has done a good job in raising public awareness about Jesus. Beyond that, the Church has brought millions of people to the point of confessing faith in Him. So doing, they have brought millions to the Door, the Gate to life. Consider here what Yeshua (the authentic Hebrew "Jesus") said:

"Straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life, and few there be who find it." Matthew 7:14

As you read those words, did you notice that what Yeshua said is not exactly the same as what many have thought? "Straight is the Gate...that leads to life" has been the message of many churches. This amounts to saying that you can only enter into life through faith in Jesus. This is entering the Gate to life. No problem there.

While that is right, many Christians say the "sinners prayer" and think they now are "saved" - so can essentially continue on with the life they want to live. That is often reinforced by the Church constantly rehashing the same salvation message over and over again, with little real meat beyond that. Because of this, many know the Gate, but they don't really know the Way. Going through a gate is a momentary act, like the sinner's prayer. Walking a way is something entirely different, and far more rigorous.

Passing through a gate is not an end in itself. The purpose of passing through a gate is to access the path that will take you to your destination. Yeshua's narrow way to life is the Way one must walk after passing through the Gate to eventually arrive at Eternal Life. As with any way/road, it is entirely possible to be drawn off into another way that will take you someplace else. This is especially true since the way to life is a "narrow way", a constricted way, that does not allow for joining the majority on the "broad way" to destruction. Unfortunately, if one knows the Gate but not the Way, they may easily be drawn off onto the "broad way" that leads to destruction. If you have any doubt in what I am saying, consider these shocking words of Yeshua:

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?' Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'" Matthew 7:21-23

Because the false Church doesn't focus on the Way, they think they can change the world/culture (the broad way) but instead, the world/culture keeps changing them. If they knew the Way, they would know the folly of that approach. Is it any wonder sincere believers often develop an intuitive sense that the false Church is not getting them where they need to go? As Yeshua said:

“ Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.” Matthew 15:13-14

Some sincere Christians get to a place where they do exactly what Yeshua is saying here - they leave the blind guides behind and venture forward looking for something real. They are seeking a more meaningful connection with the Lord. They may not know it, but what they are really looking for is Yeshua's Narrow Way.

Frankly, here at Tsiyon we've got that, and we want to share it.

How though will we reach those earnest believers who are seeking more?

With Tsiyon Academy we have a group of believers working with Tsiyon who have chosen to be students, disciples, talmidim, of Yeshua Messiah. Through Tsiyon Academy those talmidim have chosen to develop knowledge, skills and abilities needed to minister Yeshua to others, as well as to enhance their walk on the narrow way themselves.

Now, we are taking Tsiyon Academy to a new and higher level, in which all of us, together, in real live time, will take what we've received through Tsiyon Academy out to minister to others. Our new live-stream platform, from our new studio here at Tsiyon, will be the vehicle we can use to do that. A guest panel of Tsiyon Academy enrollees will be scheduled in advance to join me and some of our Tsiyon Team live on-screen! There is nothing to be nervous about here, because our panel guests can just be themselves as they feel comfortable to share. Absolutely no pressure here, so the Holy Spirit can guide each one on the panel.

Our purpose will be to bring Yeshua's Narrow Way to all who Messiah will call, that they may walk the authentic path of Yeshua with us. We will also offer viewers who request it individual prayer in His name to meet the real prayer needs they bring to our attention during the live meeting. Questions and comments of viewers will also be accommodated. We sincerely hope this corporate Tsiyon outreach can be the on-ramp to Yeshua's Narrow Way for lots of people!

When you come to the live Tsiyon meeting tonight, what can you expect? You don't need to download anything or do anything technical. Just come at the scheduled time and view our live stream. Anyone viewing the live stream can send us a question, comment, prayer request or prayer report in live time and we will include as many of these as possible, as time allows. If we run out of time we will still make our best effort to answer each one. Perhaps you would like to be on air as part of our live-stream panel? As I mentioned, our quest panel for these live meetings will be scheduled from our Tsiyon Academy students. If you want to participate at that level join Tsiyon Academy to be added to the schedule list.

Once we are ready for the next phase of the roll-out, we will be adding more platforms to our live-stream. Yeshua's Narrow Way streamed live through your Facebook or other social media will be a great way for you to bring Yeshua to others, especially if you are developing a Kingdom Outpost. See how that works together? A little later we will be rolling out more opportunities for you to use this live-stream to minister to others. Working together, we will be able to introduce many to Yeshua's narrow way and/or meet the spiritual needs of many already on it.

No doubt you have questions about all this. The best way for you to get what this is about is to view the live-stream. Tonight at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM, CST we will be rolling out the very first live episode of this exciting new outreach! We will be revealing the way of the authentic Hebrew Yeshua, week by week. Be there tonight to get started from the very beginning! We begin to stream our timer by 7:50, just in case you like to show up a little early to be sure you get logged in. Invite your friends and relatives to sign-up free to view this at Tsiyon.Net. This is going to be great!

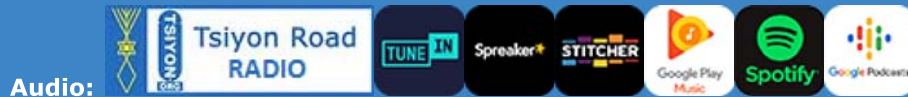

In His Name,

Eliyahu
