The Sermon on the Mount

Messiah reveals the heart of the Torah

Spiritual Service

From Eliyahu

Consider this:

War is everywhere today. According to one source, there are about 32 ongoing hot conflicts in the world right now, ranging from drug wars, terrorist insurgencies, ethnic conflicts, and civil wars.

[<https://wisevoter.com/country-rankings/countries-currently-at-war/>]

This number does not include struggles between nations and blocks of nations, such as the on-going struggle between Iran and it's surrogates and Israel. Nor, does it include the proxy war between the NATO block and the Russian block.

The cold war struggle between the United States block and the China block also is not counted.

Economic wars are not included on the list of wars, such as the economic war by the BRICS nations (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa) attempting to overturn the American Dollar. Neither is the culture war, that is literally dividing whole nations. Then there is the political left and right, and the war of the globalists against the nationalists and all of humanity. More could be cited, but the fact that wars are everywhere in this world today is beyond dispute.

Further, all of these wars of different types have become entangled with one another into a giant Gordian Knot that reaches into the lives of every person on earth, inflaming the world with disorder, anger, hatred, jealousy, destruction, disease and even death - a lot of death. Why so much war? Some would say it is because we are in the last days, as prophesied in the Bible. Two such prophecies come to mind here immediately.

1. The Olivet Sermon: "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom." (Matthew 24:7)

2. The Red Horse Rider of Revelation: "And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, Come and see. And another, a red horse, went out. And power was given to him sitting on it, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. And there was given to him a great sword."

(Revelation 6:3-4)

When these prophecies are taken together with the other prophetic signs they do indeed match the prophetic fingerprint of the last days as set out in Scripture. While this is true, this is not the REASON for the super-abundance of war in the world. Yeshua's brother, James, tells us the reason for wars.

"From where do wars and fighting come? Is it not from this, from your lusts which war in your members? You desire, and do not have. You murder, and are jealous, and cannot obtain." (James 4:1-3)

Those who instigate wars of all kinds always represent themselves as having justifiable reasons for making war. We have 'Justice Warriors' and 'Freedom Fighters' and 'Resistance Fighters' - all claiming to be the good guys. Nations make war to eliminate 'weapons of mass destruction' that do not exist. Conquerors make war to unify the world, such as Alexander the Great forcing the world to accept a common culture, or Rome with its Pax Romana (Roman Peace), or the World Economic Forum, with its 'Great Reset'. Attacking people, starving people, killing people, for the good of humanity. Does that make sense to you?

What are the real motives for instigating wars? Selfishness, greed, jealousy, lust for power, riches, glory. This is why we have more war on more fronts in the world than ever before. It is because this is a wicked generation under Divine judgment - an exceptionally wicked and evil generation massively defying the Creator on a grand scale. This is why the last days judgments are falling upon "this generation!" - because of its exceedingly great wickedness. (2 Timothy 3)

*Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace
by those who make peace.
James 3:18*

Brothers and sisters, all of this warfare and its consequences can make even good people become a bit cantankerous at times. The uncertainty and hostility of the world can cause a lot of stress on the righteous. In turn, stress can frazzle the nerves and start to undermine relationships among the body of believers. Of course, this is exactly what our chief adversary, the devil, wants to see among believers. He loves to make little transgressions into big sources of division. He loves to use those personal gripes and tensions to get our eyes off of doing the Father's will and into making war with one another. In such times as this it becomes more important than ever for us to love one another, to forgive one another, and to serve one another - especially in those moments when our brother or sister is running a bit off the rails.

Yeshua taught us through both words and example that loving our brother may involve suffering the transgressions of our brother. "And whoever desires to be foremost among you, let him be your servant; even as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many." (Matthew 20:27-28)

Yeshua's self-sacrificing example for His own shows us the heart of spiritual service He wishes for each of us. This is probably the hardest kind of spiritual service to master, partly because we often don't see that it is service to Him.

However, what we do toward one another we do toward Him, because each of His own are beloved. If you are a parent, how do you want your children to treat each other? Is it a service to you when your children treat each other with love and respect - and forgive one another when called for? When we do that in the Body it makes His heart glad!

Yeshua devoted a lot of attention to this sort of spiritual service in "The Sermon on the Mount." We will be carefully digging into what He told us about that in our live stream meeting tonight. We will also look at how He showed us the difference between outward religious ritual and inward relationship with God.

Join us for our live-stream broadcast tonight, July 25, at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM, Central for this important episode of Yeshua's Narrow Way. People get a lot wrong in this part of Yeshua's teaching, because they overlook the context. We will be digging deeper, and some surprises may be in store. If you belong to Him then you need to understand these vital teachings of Yeshua.

In His Name,

Eliyahu
