WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS WORLD?

"You once walked according to this Age of the world, according to the chief ruler of the jurisdiction of the atmosphere, the spirit who now works in the sons of rebellion."
Ephesians 2:2

From Eliyahu

Like over 80 percent of Americans, I watched the recent Biden/Trump Presidential Debate. I was not surprised by Joe Biden's unfiltered performance. What is of interest to me is the reaction of the public to it. The New York Times summed it up in these words:

A full 60% of Americans now say Biden is not "fit to serve another term as president." Just 24% say he is fit. The president's fitness rating has never been worse. (Biden Told Ally That He Is Weighing Whether to Continue in the Race, The New York Times, July 3, 2024)

After seeing the poor performance of our alleged president the recurring question has been, "Who is running the country?" Here are examples:

- "As Biden bumbles, the question is: Who's really running the country?" - New York Post
- "Who is running the country?" - Seymour Hersh
- "Who is running the United States?" - The Highland County Press
- "After last night (debate), our government owes Americans a simple answer: who is **actually** running the country right now?" - Vivek Ramaswamy on X
- Replying to @VivekGRamaswamy, "Maybe nobody" - Elon Musk

Indeed, if the person who is believed to be the executive is not in a condition to cognitively do so, then clearly, he is not really doing that job - so who is?

Once you start thinking about this you realize this is pretty late in the game for the public, and especially those of Biden's own party, to be asking this question. And what of those insiders in Biden's party who have known of his condition all along? They have been covering for him with the press and the people since before he was ever put into office - and the only logical conclusion is that they have been lying about it from the start, and running the scam all along.

Really, isn't someone in Biden's condition the perfect straw figurehead for some other person or group bending the government to their whims through a puppet persona? Is such a thing even possible? Yeah, it is both possible and probable.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, the 34th president of the United States, delivered a television broadcast as far back as January 17, 1961, in which he warned America:

"The prospect of domination of the nation's scholars by Federal employment, project allocation, and the power of money is ever present and is gravely to be regarded. Yet in holding scientific discovery in respect, as we should, we must also be alert to the equal and opposite danger that public policy could itself become the captive of a scientific-technological elite."

At the time of his speech, Eisenhower was especially concerned with the possibility of the "military-industrial complex" and the elite behind it, taking government "captive" for purposes contrary to the interests of the American people.

This has long since happened. Yet, surprisingly, for many, it has taken the view of Biden's "new clothes" to expose the naked truth that there is an invisible power behind the throne. Despite this public revelation, only a relative few will see, or be willing to accept, the obvious implication that a veiled coup was staged against America, and obviously succeeded in the attempt to usurp government control.

This is nothing new. Very little in this world is as it seems. The big money has always been the big power with politicians. It has never been very hard for those who control the big money to also control big government with it. The same can be said of big news media. You can't trust it. A lot of ordinary people have been groomed to trust 'big' - and that's a big mistake for them.

I'm not a political person, since I put all my trust in Yeshua Messiah and His Kingdom. That is not to say I am not interested in political shifts, but my interest is in the effects of politics on fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

For decades I've looked at politics and current events and compared all of that to prophecy in Scripture. I've seen the trends and I've reported the growing specter of a global take-over by this world's elites, as prophesied in Scripture. Regarding Biden, before he was inaugurated I reported on events surrounding him in the light of Bible prophecy and predicted "America is Doomed" in a full-length Bible teaching video. Since then, there has been nothing but further evidence that I was not wrong about that. Now, finally, a majority of the public are starting to see, even if dimly, just how bad the situation is for America right now, and for the world.

What's Wrong With This World? is the theme of the special presentation the Tsiyon Team and myself have prepared for our Tsiyon members tonight. If you have ever wondered about that question then you will get a solid historical and Biblical answer from tonight's presentation. There are unseen powers, both temporal and ethereal that have been at work in actual history and events that have, and are, impacting all of us right now.

What's Wrong With This World? is the theme we will be unpacking on our Remnant RoundUp segment tonight. All of our Tsiyon members are invited, tonight, July 4, 2024, at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM, Central. Join us, won't you?

In His Name,
