From Eliyahu

What is the Kingdom the Good News (Gospel) is all about ? The angel Gabriel left no doubt, when announcing the Messiah's birth. He said to Miriam (Mary):

*"Don't be afraid, Miriam, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name Yeshua. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom." Luke 1:30-33

Yeshua's earthly ministry was all about establishing and building that Davidic Kingdom "over the house of Jacob." Indeed, the Good News of the Kingdom declared that the Messiah had come, and was building His Kingdom.

"Yeshua went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed him." Matthew 4:23-25

Besides bringing "multitudes" into His Kingdom, Yeshua established His Kingdom administration, appointing The Twelve Emissaries, and He also sent out The Seventy. Clearly, He was the Rock on which His Kingdom was being built. He told the multitudes, being built upon that Rock is a requirement for entry into the Kingdom.

"Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on the Rock. The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the Rock. Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn't do them will be like a foolish man, who built his house on the sand. The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell--and great was its fall." Matthew 7:24-27

The Rock is often found in Scripture to specifically identify the Divine in relation to Israel, whether the Father or the Son. (See: Duet 32:4, 15, 18, 30, Ps 118:22, 1 Sam 2:2, 2 Sam 22:2, 3, 32, 47, 23:3, Isa 28:16, 1 Cor 10:4, etc)

This admonition from Paul is interesting, pointing to Messiah as the Rock without actually using the word:

"As therefore you received Messiah Yeshua, the Lord, walk in Him, rooted and built up on Him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving." Col 2:6-7

Peter also recognized Yeshua as the Stone chosen by God upon which the chosen nation was built:

"If indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious: coming to him, a living Stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious." .. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for Gods own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of Him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:" 1 Peter 2:3-4, 9

So what is my point with all of this?

Simply this: it is established beyond all doubt in the Gospels and the rest of the Scriptures that Yeshua, at His first coming, built and established His Messianic administration of the Davidic Kingdom. That He was doing so was the "Good News of the Kingdom" that He preached. He is the Rock upon which His Kingdom Assembly of Renewed Israel is built. His Kingdom, of course, includes those born again from every nation who choose to be "grafted in" to His Kingdom, the Assembly of Renewed Israel. In the first Century these became known as Nazoreans, just as He had been. All of this is historically irrefutable. (Romans 11, Acts 24:5)

This explains the 1st Century Nazorean Assembly very well, as established during His earthly ministry, but a question remains. What provision was made for the continuance of the Kingdom administration after Messiah's resurrection and ascension to heaven? After all, those whom Yeshua first chose to be officers of His Kingdom would eventually die out.

What would happen after that? Whose job would it be to act as guardians of the Kingdom to continue the administration of Messiah in the midst of His people throughout the earth? As we have seen, by sacred covenant this falls to the House of David in every generation. If this was to be the means Messiah would use to administer His Kingdom over His people through the then-upcoming generations, we would expect He would have made provision for that before His departure to Heaven. Did He do that? If so, how?

If you don't know the real answers to those questions you are not alone. The official number of Christians in the world stands at 2.4 billions. Of those, I would be surprised if 1% know the real answers to those questions. Why is that? It is because of an ancient PSYOP [psychological operation] which Messiah predicted in one of His parables. It begins like this:

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel weeds also among the wheat, and went away. But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the darnel weeds appeared also."

Matthew 13:24-26

This is describing a schism in which the devil sowed what were essentially wolves in sheep's clothing among the Nazorean Assembly. This happened in the 2nd Century. Eventually, the weeds far outnumbered the wheat, and that's when they launched the PSYOP designed to make the world believe that they, the weeds, were actually the wheat. Wolves in sheep's clothing, get it?

As in the parable, there were just too many weeds, so once this happened it was too late to reverse the situation. Being a vast majority, the weeds were able to control the narrative with lies and deceptions that most people believed - that's what I mean by a PSYOP. This has come down through history like this, and has left billions believing the wheat are the weeds and the weeds are the wheat. When Yeshua said that only "few" find the road to life, He knew what He was talking about. Interestingly, the parable indicates a long time would pass before the weeds would be dealt with. Here is what Yeshua said will happen:

"He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the Kingdom; and the darnel weeds are the children of the evil one. The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. As therefore the darnel weeds are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age." Matthew 13:37-40

Tonight, I am presenting our latest episode of our Kingdom Foundations Seminar entitled: The Established Kingdom. It will demonstrate what the truth is. Who are the true historical wheat. Who are the actual weeds, and what lengths they have gone to suppress the truth. This is what today is commonly called "the red pill" so proceed at your own risk. If you are a truth seeker then this is a gold mine. Our live stream will begin at Tsiyon.Net at 8 PM, Central. We look forward to sharing with you.
