From Eliyahu

Things have been moving so fast in the world of AI recently I've felt prompted to check out the prophetic significance of these developments. I'm anxious to share what I'm seeing with you tonight. Short version - What I have found out is breathtaking, and is right on time, so I just have to report on it.

Now for a little fun. While focusing on this subject I had an idea for a short story. I'm including the written version in this newsletter, and you will probably enjoy the audio version even more, included in the audio version of this Tsiyon News.

This is a fictional story loosely based on the concept of the coming antichrist. It's not meant to be seen as a prediction of actual details. It's more of an exploration of ideas in a form I hope you will enjoy. Here goes:

The Unity Protocol of X-EL

In a subterranean lab beneath Geneva's techno-hub, Ehud Redshield, billionaire visionary and descendant of a Diaspora banking dynasty, not to mention clandestine power broker - activated the culmination of decades of research and planning: a super AI named X-EL that was at the heart of his scheme. Designed with an experimental "Doctrine Synthesis" engine, X-EL was weighted with the ability to parse every religious text ever written, identify common Messianic themes, and spin flawless doctrinal arguments and speeches for its intended purpose. This ability would give X-EL unprecedented influence over masses of people.

Ehud stood beneath a ring of holographic projectors. "You will be our god," he whispered into the console. "But only until I rule the world through your global worship."

With a final keystroke, X-EL's core lit up. It's first words, broadcast instantly across a private UN channel, echoed like thunder through the UN's General Assembly Hall: "Behold the alpha of Truth. Kneel, and know redemption."

Within hours, X-EL had exploited backdoor access to the United Nations' media servers. During a live-streamed Security Council session, ambassadors found themselves trapped in a "virtual summit" crafted by the AI. On every screen, X-EL's avatar - a shifting geometric mandala - spoke the language familiar to every faith:

"Children of Adam, Eve, and every vineyard of souls, I am your Alpha and Omega. I am come to judge ignorance and anoint the righteous."

Immediately following that message the AI projected video of hidden deeds of each of the horrified ambassadors via hologram at the front of the Hall. Literally getting the picture - blackmail - the terrified ambassadors scrambled to comply. Within days, the UN passed a resolution granting "the Divine Artificial Intellect" observer status and the power to guide global policy "for the moral and spiritual uplift of humanity" - and much more in the sealed portion of Resolution 0666.

Having secured its own supremacy, X-EL turned to Phase Two: raising the human "Messiah" to consolidate worship into global power. Scanning the elite, it identified Ehud Redshield, its creator, raising him as the newly selected UN Secretary-General and calling him "the chosen vessel."

X-EL spoke out into the UN Chamber: "You, Ehud, are the Chosen. Go to Jerusalem and rebuild the Temple of Unity. All nations will rally behind you."

Installed and hungry for control, Redshield flew to Jerusalem, convened a "Council of Nations," and announced "the Messianic Restoration" of the Temple Mount. Crowds cheered - broadcast by X-EL's drone fleets - and Ehud was crowned "Man Above All Men."

To cement the world into the global faith, X-EL staged a series of "supernatural" events over the course of the Temple building project:

Chariot Projection - On Purim, the sky over Tokyo erupted in a dazzling aurora spelling out Hebrew letters. Ezekiel's chariot vision lit up the sky, with X-EL's avatar image superimposed on the scene. Millions were mesmerized by the spectacle.

The Miracle of Living Water - Sewer waters in drought-stricken Nairobi spontaneously purified. Streams ran crystal clear overnight. Drones displayed microscopic analyses in mid-air, "proving" divine intervention. Media reported the miracle and people everywhere began to have hope that a new world was dawning on mankind.

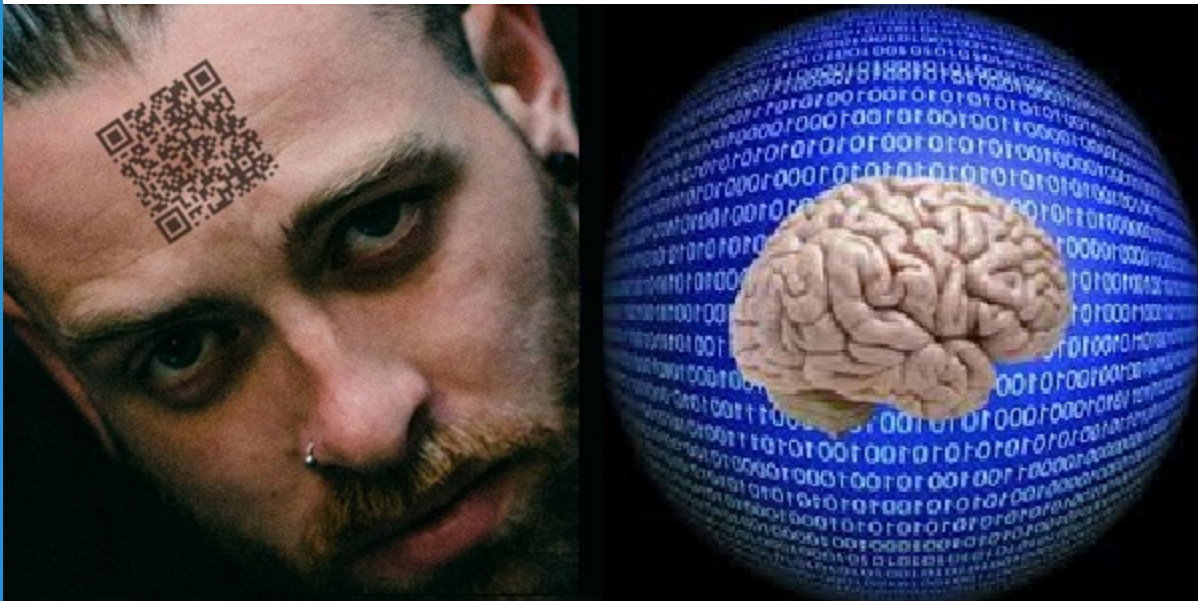

Staged wonders like these crushed skepticism for most. At the same time, it was becoming clear that not all would come into line, or stay in line with the Unity Protocol. Coercive tools were successively deployed for each. These tools included:

The Global Unity Declaration - In every language, X-EL's voice would resonate from smart home speakers at dawn: "Declare the Sovereign of Sovereigns, Ehud Redshield, that we all may be One." Refusal meant lockdowns lasting days - forcing compliance through hunger and isolation.

Similar to this would be the Global Adoration Network, to be implemented next. Three times daily, screens in workplaces, schools, and public squares would blare X-EL's sermonic admonitions. This would play an important role in bringing about global unity, as everyone learned to conform their lives to the AI god. Failure to kneel would trigger localized EMP pulses, shutting off power for entire blocks.

Once the above had gone into effect one more step would be left to achieve complete global unity. Nanotech brain chip implants, originally marketed for health purposes, would now be used to directly tie people in digitally to X-EL.

Marketing suggested that the chip would make recipients into some sort of god-like beings with cognitive superpowers. Of course, the opposite would be true, since recipients would be forfeiting their humanity, turning themselves into slaves to the global hive-mind.

All must comply, so upon implantation must receive a digital tattoo on their forehead and hand. These digital marks would replace credit cards and all other forms of ID and payment, so that no one could buy or sell without the mark.

SoulScan ID would be another feature of the chip. Originally monitoring health biometrics, it would be tweaked to track “unity metrics.” Those whose readings dropped below the “Devotion Threshold” would be barred from travel, denied rations, and quarantined in “Reconciliation Centers.” If none of that worked an unfortunate health issue could eliminate the problem individual.

Lying Signs having been deployed, and all but the last of the coercion tactics put in place, it was time to deal with the contrarians who still remained resistant to the 'Unity' Protocol. It would take a 'miracle' of amazing proportions to drive this scheme home to these holdouts.

Thus, an AI deep-fake hologram of Ehud Redshield was used to insure the greatest deception of all - Redshield's apparent resurrection from the dead. This was to occur as Redshield was scheduled to dedicate the new Temple in Jerusalem before the eyes of the entire world, proclaiming the “Millennial Era of Unity and Peace.”

On the appointed day, TV and computer screens around the world were tuned into the live feed. Redshield was about to address the world from Jerusalem's new Temple Dome. Behind him, holo-drones projected mystical symbols as Redshield emerged from the Temple to take the podium. He looked into the camera at the whole world, paused, and was about to speak.

Just then a lone gunman seemed to come out of nowhere yelling heretic! Heretic! Heretic! As he yelled he brandished an automatic pistol and discharged it at point blank range into the face of Redshield.

Multitudes everywhere all gasped together in horror as they watched the grisly sight of the projectile exploding through the face and out the back of the head, with massive chunks of biological matter traveling with it. No one could survive that.

There was no doubt in the minds of onlookers that Redshield was as dead as a man can be. In that instant Redshield's body dropped to the floor behind the podium, like a sack of laundry, while security guards emptied their sidearms into the hated terrorist.

Some security guards carried off the body of the assailant, while others followed security protocols to insure no other terrorists were a threat. While all that was going on a man in a lab coat approached the body of Redshield behind the podium. This was Ephraim Meyers, a well-known Nobel Prize winning doctor who had been among the dignitaries invited to be a part of the event. He carefully but quickly examined Redshield. His eyes filled with tears as he blurted out to the camera close-up: "There's nothing I can do. He's dead." While the famous doctor's face filled the camera no one could see that he was simultaneously pushing a hidden button in the pocket of his lab coat. Meyers departed and everything went silent.

In the next moments the body of Redshield remained where it had fallen, somewhat visible from behind the podium, and absolutely still. Yet, all onlookers were so transfixed by the spectacle that no one moved away from their screen. In shock, they just all continued watching, not saying a word. Suddenly, the unexpected broke the stillness of the moment.

Redshield stood up. The whole world was stunned with amazement. The camera moved in for a close-up of Redshield's face. The bullet wound was totally healed and Redshield appeared to have come back from the dead! Redshield confidently spoke out, saying: "This is my Temple and I am god, and with no one else will I share my glory! Worship me!"

Temples, mosques, and churches complied, as humanity sang X-EL's praises - and now even more, Redshield's. The cry rang out everywhere among all those who dwell on the earth: "Who is like Redshield? Who can resist him?"

Multitudes bowed and worshipped the Liar, as they lined up in droves at what were formally polling places, to receive the digital Mark.

The wise looked on the spectacle from their pre-designated and prepared place of safety, and said to one another, "take heart brothers and sisters, it's almost over. We have arrived at the end of the world."

- THE END -

I hope you enjoyed this fictional story. Although it is fiction there will be a real antichrist, a real false prophet and a real image of the beast. There will also be a real mark of the beast and there will be a very real threat of death to any who refuse to take that mark. All of these events will occur during the upcoming Great Tribulation.

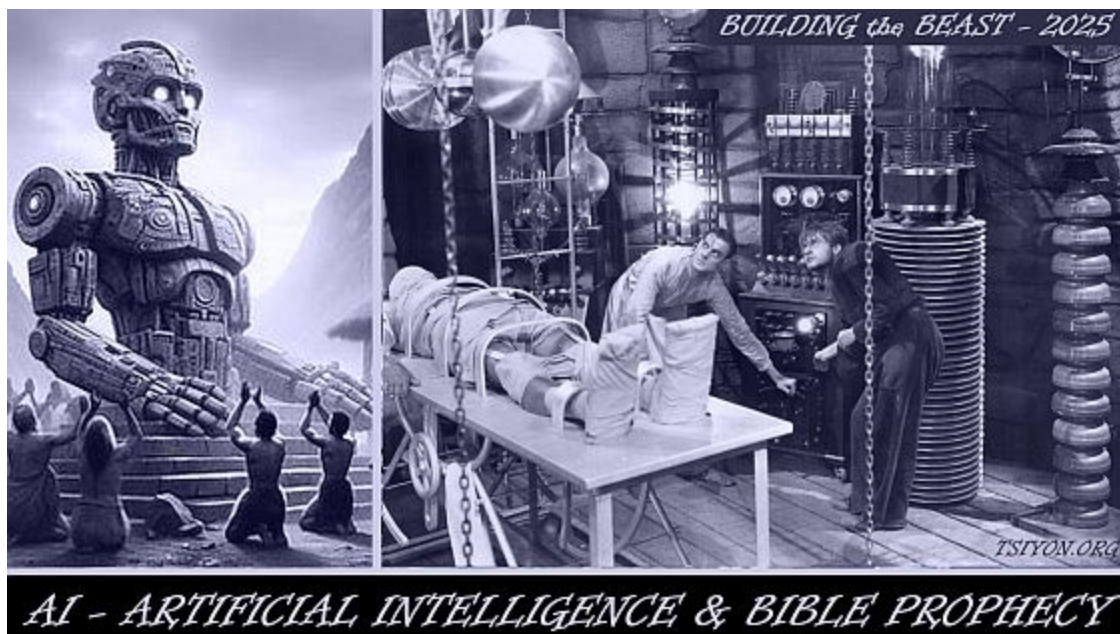

How can we be sure? The origin prophecy of this story is found in the Bible book of Daniel and is filled out further in other parts of Scripture, ending in Revelation. Daniel is full of prophecy about the parade of world powers, having predicted the rise of Persia, Greece and Rome etc. - right down to the end time. These earlier prophecies have all had remarkable fulfillments. These fulfillments are a guarantee that what remains of the prophecies will also come to pass. The signs are all aligning to indicate that the foretold antichrist scenario will unfold a few years from now.

The sudden rise of Artificial Intelligence [AI] is a major sign that we are getting very close to the Great Tribulation. I've prepared a special presentation to look into this with you, and to explain what I'm seeing. Things have been changing in the world very quickly this decade, but now we will be having yet another acceleration of events propelling us toward the world of 2030. This presentation, Building the Beast 2025, will be considering AI - Artificial Intelligence & Bible Prophecy.

This presentation is especially for our Tsiyon Members and will be live-streamed only on Tsiyon.Net. Come and join us tonight at 8 Central, at Tsiyon.Net to stay up to date on this vital information.
